INTROIT

Alleluia. Now Is the Hour of Darkness Past
Daniel Pinkham '43 (1923–2006)

Alleluia.

Now is the hour of darkness past;
Christ hath assumed his reigning power.
Behold the great accuser cast
Down from the skies, to rise no more.

Alleluia.

'Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb,
Thine armies trod the tempter down;
'Twas by thy word and powerful name
They gained the battle and renown.

Alleluia.

Rejoice ye heavens! Let every star
Shine with new glories round the sky!
Saints, while ye sing the heavenly war,
Raise your Redeemer's name on high.

Alleluia.
Text by Isaac Watts (1674–1748)

SALUTATION

The ministers and choir exchange the following greeting:

Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

The congregation standing

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply: Alleluia!

Lives again our glorious King, Alleluia!
Where, O death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!
Dying once, he all doth save, Alleluia!
Where thy victory, O grave? Alleluia!

Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids him rise, Alleluia!
Christ has opened Paradise, Alleluia!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head, Alleluia!
Made like him, like him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above: Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
Praise him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

AT THE OFFERTORY

Spring Bursts Today

Alfred V. Fedak (b. 1953)

Commissioned for Easter Day 2012

Spring bursts today,
For Christ is risen and all the earth’s at play.
Flash forth, thou Sun,
The rain is over and gone, its work is done.
Winter is past.
Sweet Spring is come at last, is come at last.
Bud, Fig and Vine,
Bud, Olive, fat with fruit and oil and wine.
Break forth this morn
In roses, thou but yesterday a Thorn.
Uplift thy head,
O pure white Lily thro’ the Winter dead.
Beside your dams
Leap and rejoice, you merry-making Lambs.
All Herds and Flocks
Rejoice, all Beasts of thickets and of rocks.
Sing, Creatures, sing,
Angels and Men and Birds and everything.
All notes of Doves
Fill all our world: this is the time of loves.

Christina Rossetti (1830–1894)

Here an offering is received for the work of the Church within and beyond the University. Ushers will begin the collection from the back of the Church forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

HYMN

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
The congregation standing

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee,
Though the sinful human eye thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Perfect in power, in love and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

SERMON

Dying Beyond Our Means

Text: “So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.”

Colossians 3:1–3

HYMN

Morning Has Broken

The congregation standing

Bunessan

Morning has broken like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them springing fresh from the word!

Sweet the rain’s new fall sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where God’s feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning.
Born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God’s recreation of the new day!
Order for Holy Communion

All are welcome to share in the Lord's Supper without regard to denomination.

The recording is available for free through the Memorial Church website (memorialchurch.harvard.edu) and presents a selection of Eastertide anthems as they might be heard in the daily and Sunday services of the Memorial Church. The Resurrection narrative — theatrical to the core — has long-inspired dramatic musical representation, and this recording offers a wide variety of Eastertide joy, from sixteenth-century England, through to a series of contemporary works commissioned by the Harvard University Choir. The recording also highlights Fisk Op. 139, The Charles B. Fisk and Peter J. Gomes Memorial Organ, which was dedicated on Easter Day, 2012.

MUSIC NOTES
A graduate of Harvard College — and for many years Director of Music at King’s Chapel, Boston — Daniel Pinkham ’43 was one of America’s most distinguished composers, and one of this city’s most beloved musical figures. His festive “Alleluia! Now Is the Hour of Darkness Past” is quintessential Pinkham, in which a lively tune is combined with slightly unusual harmonies and subjected to various rhythmic distortions.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart’s Missa Brevis in D Major, KV 194, was written between 1772 and 1774, an especially prolific period of composition for the composer. The new Archbishop of Salzburg, Hieronymus Colloredo, had instigated a number of changes to city life, including a substantial shortening of the Mass. Musical settings from this period employ a simple and immediate declamation of the text (with a minimum of repetition), and economical instrumental forces. Despite these limitations, Mozart fashions a lively setting, which is full of beautiful tunes and elegant phrasing; this morning, we hear the “Gloria” and “Agnus Dei” movements.

Alfred V. Fedak’s setting of Christina Rossetti’s “Spring Bursts Today” was commissioned for the inauguration of the Fisk Op. 139 pipe organ on Easter Day, 2012. One of America’s most widely-published composers of sacred music, Fedak is Minister of Music and Arts at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Albany, New York. His style combines the English pastoral modality of composers such as Vaughan Williams with the rhythmic vigor of contemporary American church music.

Today’s organ music showcases the versatility of Fisk, Op. 139, with its rich tonal palette and wealth of coloristic possibilities. Bach’s setting of the seasonal chorale “Christ ist erstanden” is framed by jubilant works of John Cook and Samuel Scheidt; festive pieces by Sir William Walton and Craig Phillips are also presented during the prelude, which culminates in the majestic final movement of Louis Vierne’s first organ symphony. The postlude is Charles-Marie Widor’s most famous composition, the Toccata from his fifth organ symphony: written in 1879, this thrilling work has become a staple Easter offering in many churches around the world.

NEXT SUNDAY’S SERVICE
Next Sunday is the Second Sunday of Easter. The preacher will be Sharon Kugler, University Chaplain, Yale University.
