ASSURANCE OF PARDON
HYMN

Precious Lord, Take My Hand (page 9)

GREEMENT

THE PEACE

All are invited to join in singing. Children join their teachers in the Church School at the invitation of the worship leader.

We gather together to ask the Lord’s blessing. He hastens and has-tens his will to make known, the wicked oppress-ing now cease from dis-tress-ing. Sing praises to his name; he forgets not his own.

OFFERTORY

Here an offering is received for the work of the Church within and beyond the University. Ushers will begin the collection from the back of the hall forward.

Psalm 91:1–6, 14–16 Qui habitat chant by George C. Martin (1844–1916)

Sung by the choir

Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the most high, shall abide under the shadow of the almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold; my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers; his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night,
    nor for the arrow that flieh by day;
For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,
    nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.
Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him;
    I will set him up, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will hear him;
    yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honor.
With long life will I satisfy him,
    and show him my salvation.

DOXOLOGY

_Sung by the congregation, standing_

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

FIRST LESSON

1 Timothy 6:12–19

Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.
ANTHEM
O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee:
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;
To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.
Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.
Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.
My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:
When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.
Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.
But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.
But the king shall rejoice in God; everyone that sweareth by him shall glory:
But the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped. Amen.

Psalm 63 (KJV)

SECOND LESSON
Jeremiah 32:1–3a, 6–15
The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him.

Jeremiah said, The word of the Lord came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.” Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the Lord, and said to me, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

HYMN

The congregation seated

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the hymn is repeated.
ANTHEM
Unclouded Day (2010)
Josiah Kelly Alwood (1828–1909)
arr. Shawn Kirchner (b. 1970)

O they tell me of a home far beyond the skies,
They tell me of a home far away,
And they tell me of a home where no storm-clouds rise:
O they tell me of an unclouded day.

_O the land of cloudless days,
O the land of an unclouded sky,
O they tell me of a home where no storm-clouds rise:
O they tell me of an unclouded day._

O they tell me of a home where my friends have gone,
They tell me of a land far away,
Where the tree of life in eternal bloom
Sheds its fragrance through the unclouded day.

O they tell me of a king in his beauty there,
They tell me that mine eyes shall behold
Where he sits on a throne that is bright as the sun
In the city that is made of gold.

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
Precious Lord, Take My Hand

Thomas A. Dorsey, 1932

1 Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand, I am tired, I am weak, I am worn;
When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near, when my life is almost gone;
When the darkness appears and the night draws near, and the day is past and gone;

through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the hear my cry, head my call, hold my hand, lest I at the river I stand, guide my feet, hold my light, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on. fall, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on. hand, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on.

Hope of the World

Georgia Elma Harkness, 1954, alt.

V. Earle Copes, 1963

words by Georgia Elma Harkness

Music © 1963 Abingdon Press.

1 Hope of the world, thou Christ of great compassion, speak to our fearful hearts by conflict rent.

2 Hope of the world, God's gift from highest heaven,
bringing to hungry souls the bread of life,

3 Hope of the world, a foot on dusty highways,
showing to wandering souls the path of light,

4 Hope of the world, who by thy cross didst save us
from death and dark despair, from sin and guilt,

5 Hope of the world, O Christ o'er death victorious,
who by this sign didst conquer grief and pain,

Save us, thy people, from consuming passion,
we would be faithful to thy gospel glorious;

still let thy Spirit unto us be given,
we render back the love thy mercy gave us;

walk thou beside us lest the tempting byways
we would be faithless to thy gospel glorious.

who by our own false hopes and aims are spent.
to heal earth’s wounds and end all bitter strife.
lure us away from thee to endless night.
take thou our lives, and use them as thou wilt.
thou art our Lord! Thou dost forever reign.

WELCOME

Today is the Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher is the Reverend Dr. Lucy A. Forster-Smith, Sedgwick Chaplain to the University and Senior Minister in the Memorial Church. The service is led by Professor Jonathan L. Walton, Plummer Professor of Christian Morals and Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church; and the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. The first lesson is read by Michelle Odonkor ’18. The second lesson is read by Douglas Maggs ’17. The music is provided by the Harvard University Choir, under the direction of Edward E. Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster, and Thomas M. Sheehan, Associate University Organist and Choirmaster.

Listening devices are available to help the hearing impaired participate in the service; please ask an usher for assistance.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School offers Christian education classes for children of ages three through twelve. Classes are held in the lower level of the Knafel Center during Sunday services and emphasize biblical themes and scripture. At the conclusion of the worship service, parents are asked to promptly pick up their children. To register, please visit the Church School for Children page on our website.

The Church School is offering confirmation for students in grades 7–8. This program is designed to guide students in the formation of their Christian identity and personal faith. Contact Church School Director Westley (Wes) Conn (westley_conn@harvard.edu) to register for this class, or for more information about Church School programs.
MUSIC NOTES

This morning’s music celebrates the vibrant diversity of American church music and its ongoing legacy. Chris DeBlasio was one of America’s most gifted composers, whose life was tragically ended by HIV/AIDS in 1993, at the age of thirty-four. His former composition teacher John Corigliano wrote that he was “a young composer who embodied that rarest of all things—a truly lyric voice,” and this characteristic is demonstrated in the soaring beauty of this morning’s setting of Psalm 63. It is taken from a set of four anthems, The Best-Beloved, written towards the end of his life, whilst contemplating his own question “What use is art when people are dying?” The concluding chord on the word “Amen” seems to leave us with a somewhat imperfect answer.

Shawn Kirchner is a composer, arranger, and pianist based in Los Angeles where he sings with the Los Angeles Master Chorale. Appointed the Chorale’s Composer-in-Residence in 2012, Kirchner’s spirited arrangement of the Reverend J. K. Alwood’s beloved gospel tune “Unclouded Day” was premiered by that ensemble in May 2010.

The prelude is a contemplative piano piece written by American composer David Hogan. This piece was written shortly before his tragic death aboard TWA Flight 800, which exploded off the coast of Long Island. At the time, he was living in Paris, working as music director of Le Choeur Int’l Gai de Paris, a men’s choir formed for those who wanted to show their pride in their identity as gay men.

Emma Lou Diemer is Professor of Music, Emeritus, at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and a distinguished organ recitalist and composer, whose oeuvre includes the perky Toccata for a Joyful Day.

USHERING AND READING SIGN-UP
