Minister: O taste and see that the Lord is good!
People: Come, let us worship the Lord!

Invocation

Confession
In unison:
Merciful God, in your presence we admit our shortcomings, our offenses against you and our neighbor. We have wandered from your ways, wasting your gifts, forgetting the gift of love given to us through Jesus Christ our Lord. Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit. Amen.

ANTHEM
Jauchzet dem Herren, alle Welt (Psalm 100), SWV 036
Heinrich Schütz (1585–1672)

Jauchzet dem Herren alle Welt.
Dienet dem Herren mit Freuden.
Kommt vor sein Angesicht mit Frohlocken.
Erkennet, dass der Herr Gott ist.
Er hat uns gemacht, und nicht wir selbst, zu seinem Volk und zu Schafen seiner Weide.
Gehet zu seinen Toren ein mit Danken, zu seinen Vorhöfen mit Loben.
 Danket ihm, lobet seinen Namen.
Denn der Herr ist freundlich und seine Gnade währet ewig, und seine Wahrheit für und für.
Ehre sei dem Vater und dem Sohn und auch dem heilgen Geiste.
O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
Serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise;
Be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting;
And his truth endures from generation to generation.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Psalm 100

SECOND LESSON

John 13:34–35

ANTHEM

 Jacob’s Ladder

We are climbing Jacob’s Ladder,
Soldiers of the cross.
Ev’ry round goes higher, higher,
Soldiers of the cross.
Sinners, do you love my Jesus?
Soldiers of the cross.
If you love him, why not serve him?
Soldiers of the cross.
Rise, shine, give God glory,
Soldiers of the cross.
We are climbing higher, higher,
Soldiers of the cross.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.
Lord, show us your love and mercy;
People: For we put our trust in you.
Minister: In you, Lord, is our hope;
People: And we shall never hope in vain.

Each time the minister says “Lord, in your mercy,” the congregation will respond with “Hear our prayer.”

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
THE GRACE
The Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Today’s music mostly comes to us from the German Baroque tradition. “Jauchzet dem Herren, alle Welt” is by Heinrich Schütz, who wrote it for his collection Psalmen Davids, which was printed in 1619 in Dresden. At this time, Schütz was working in Dresden as court composer to the Elector of Saxony. It is an ebullient setting of Psalm 100, usually better known by its Latin title “Jubilate Deo.” It shows the remarkable influence of Giovanni Gabrieli, with whom Schütz had studied in Venice less than a decade prior. The antiphonal use of two choirs is a hallmark of this Venetian school, which is very evident in this piece.

The organ music for today comes from the German Baroque composers Dieterich Buxtehude and Johann Sebastian Bach. J.S. Bach is actually something of a historical link between the East German, Italian-influenced Schütz and the North German, Danish-born Buxtehude. Although Bach lived for his entire career in Eastern Germany, he was known to have respected Buxtehude so much that he made the more than 250 mile journey from his home in Arnstadt to Lübeck to meet Buxtehude and learn more about “his art.” The Passacaglia of Buxtehude, like all examples of its form, is based on a repeating bass line in triple time over which variations are superimposed. Unusually, though, in this passacaglia, the theme is transposed for several of the sections of the piece. The postlude is Bach’s energetic Toccata in F Major, which is considered one of the pedal virtuoso pieces of the German Baroque School, having extended perpetual motion pedal solos near the beginning of the piece.

Calvin Hampton, somewhat the odd man out in today’s music line-up, was a twentieth-century American composer who served for most of his career at Calvary Episcopal Church in Manhattan before his untimely death from AIDS. Interestingly, though, there is a notable link between Hampton’s wildly successful “Fridays at Midnight” organ recital series in the 1970s and early 1980s and Buxtehude’s “Abendmusik” series in Lübeck, which most likely inspired Hampton to start his own series. Hampton’s setting of the spiritual “Jacob’s Ladder” is idiomatic of his style, with its spare, open intervals, creative use of articulation, and extreme sensitivity to the text.
