Psalm 149 Cantate Domino chant by Gerald Knight (1908–1979)
Sung by the choir

O sing unto the Lord a new song; let the congregation of saints praise him.
Let Israel rejoice in him that made him, and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.
Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with tabret and harp.
For the Lord hath pleasure in his people; and helpeth the meek-hearted.
Let the saints be joyful with glory; let them rejoice in their beds.
Let the praises of God be in their mouth; and a two-edged sword in their hands;
To be avenged of the nations, and to rebuke the peoples;
To bind their kings in chains,
    and their nobles with links of iron;
To execute judgment upon them; as it is written,
    Such honor have all his saints.

DOXOLOGY
Sung by the congregation, standing
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

FIRST LESSON
Song of Solomon 8:5–7
Who is that coming up from the wilderness,
    leaning upon her beloved?
Under the apple tree I awakened you.
There your mother was in labor with you;
    there she who bore you was in labor.
Set me as a seal upon your heart,
    as a seal upon your arm;
for love is strong as death,
    passion fierce as the grave.
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
    a raging flame.
Many waters cannot quench love,
    neither can floods drown it.
If one offered for love
    all the wealth of his house,
it would be utterly scorned.
GLORIA from Mass in C major, Op. 169

Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Et in terra pax hominibus bonæ voluntatis.
Laudamus te, benedicimus te,
Adoramus te, glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi
Propter magnam gloriam tuam.

Domine Deus, Rex cælestis,
Deus Pater omnipotens.

Domine Fili unigenite, Iesu Christe.
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris.

Qui tollis peccata mundi,
Miserere nobis.

Qui tollis peccata mundi,
Suscepi deprecationem nostram.

Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
Miserere nobis.

Quoniam tu solus sanctus,
Tu solus Dominus,
Tu solus altissimus Iesu Christe,
Cum Sancto Spiritu:
In gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest
And peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
Almighty God and Father,
We worship you, we give you thanks,
We praise you for your glory.
Lord God, Heavenly King,
God the Father Almighty.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
You take away the sin of the world:
Have mercy on us.
You take away the sin of the world,
Receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
Have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit,
In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

SECOND LESSON

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

ORDER FOR HOLY COMMUNION

All are welcome to share in the Lord’s Supper without regard to denomination.

THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The minister continues:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, all holy God, creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your name:
SANCTUS

The congregation may be seated.
The minister continues with the Eucharistic prayer.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

OUR MISSION

The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.

John Henry Hopkins, 1940

1 I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true, who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew. And one was a doctor, and whole of their good lives long. And one was a soldier, and love to do Jesus’ will. You can meet them in school, or in

1 Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod, with its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river;
gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.

2 On the margin of the river, washing up its silver spray,
we will walk and worship ever, all the happy golden day.

3 Ere we reach the shining river, lay we every burden down;
grace our spirits will deliver, and provide a robe and crown.

4 Soon we'll reach the shining river, soon our pilgrimage will cease;
soon our happy hearts will quiver with the melody of peace.

MUSIC NOTES

Much of today’s music was composed by one of the most famous Liechtensteiners of all time, Josef Rheinberger. A prodigy as a child, Rheinberger began composition lessons at age 10. After graduating from the Munich Conservatory, he taught piano and composition there until the dissolution of that institution. Most of his compositions were written while employed at his next post, court conductor to the King of Bavaria. As such, he was also responsible for providing music for the masses in the royal chapel. Also during this time, the Munich Conservatory was reformed, and Rheinberger was made professor of organ and composition; simultaneously he began a project to write organ sonatas in all 24 major and minor keys, a project which he never finished, leaving us with a still very impressive 20 of them completed.

A rather conservative composer, Rheinberger’s music shows influences more from composers of previous generations than from his contemporaries. In particular one can hear stylistic reference to Mendelssohn, Schubert, and Bach. The counterpoint is exceptional, and, similarly to his contemporary, Brahms, he makes use of older formal structures such as fugue and sonata form, rather than the more freewheeling thematically linked forms of Wagner or Liszt.

The organ postlude is taken from Marcel Dupré’s collection of pieces based on plainchant melodies for the church year, Le Tombeau de Titelouze. Dupré was inspired to compose these pieces after seeing the unmarked grave of the Baroque composer Jean Titelouze in Rouen cathedral. “Placare Christe servulis,” the office hymn at Lauds and Vespers for the Feast of All Saints in the traditional Roman Rite, describes the saints in heaven, rejoicing and praising God.
