Prelude
Chorale Prelude on “St. Anne” (1911–12)  Hubert Parry (1848–1918)

Introit
“There Is an Old Belief” from Songs of Farewell (1916)  Hubert Parry

There is an old belief,
That on some solemn shore,
Beyond the sphere of grief
Dear friends shall meet once more.

Beyond the sphere of Time
And Sin, and Fate’s control,
Serene in changeless prime
Of body and of soul.

That creed I fain would keep.
That hope I’ll ne’er forgo.
Eternal be the sleep,
If not to waken so.

Invocation

Confession

In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
ASSURANCE OF PARDON

GREETING

THE PEACE

All are invited to join in singing.
Children join their teachers in the Church School at the invitation of the worship leader.

We gather together to ask the Lord’s blessing. He hastens and has tens his will to make known; the wicked oppressing now cease from distressing. Sing praises to his name; he forgets not his own.

OFFERTORY

The offering collected goes directly to fund the grant recipient organizations and their important work in our local communities. Checks can be written to the Memorial Church with the memo line “Grants Committee.” Ushers will begin collection from the back of the hall.

Psalm 84 Quam dilecta! chant by Hubert Parry
Sung by the choir

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young; even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; they will be alway praising thee.
Blessed in the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are thy ways.
Who going through the vale of misery use it for a well;

4
and the pools are filled with water.
They will go from strength to strength,
and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Sion.
O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer;
hearken, O God of Jacob.
Behold, O God our defender,
and look upon the face of thine anointed.
For one day in thy courts
is better than a thousand.
I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God,
than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.
For the Lord God is a light and defense;
the Lord will give grace and worship;
and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.
O Lord God of hosts,
blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

DOXOLOGY
Sung by the congregation, standing

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

FIRST LESSON
Malachi 4:1–2a

See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings.
ANTHEM
Great Is the Lord, Op. 67 (1910–12)
Edward Elgar (1857–1934)

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness;
Beautiful in elevation—the joy of the whole earth—is mount Zion,
on the sides of the north, the city of the great king.
God hath made himself known in her palaces for a refuge.
For lo! The kings assembled themselves, they passed by together;
The saw, then were they amazed; they were dismayed, they hasted away;
Trembling took hold of them there—pain, as of a woman in travail,
As with the east wind that breakth the ships of Tarshish.
As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish it forever.
We have thought on thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple:
As is thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth;
thy right hand is full of righteousness.
Let mount Zion be glad, let the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of thy judgments;
Walk about Zion and go round about her, tell the towers thereof,
Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces, that ye may tell it to the generation following.
For this God is our God forever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death. Amen.

Psalm 48 (KJV alt.)

SECOND LESSON
Luke 21:5–19
When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.”
They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?” And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them.
“When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.” Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.
“But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.”

HYMN
The congregation seated

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.

THE PRAYERS
Here follow the several prayers of the day.

FOR THE PEACE OF THE WORLD
O God, you have taught us that the world and all that is in it is yours; hear us, we pray, as we plead for the peace of the world. Grant that all nations may seek the ways that lead to peace, and that the dignity of your creation be upheld. Encourage us to share what we have, and embolden us to pursue and protect that peace which passes all human understanding, for the sake of Jesus Christ who is our peace.

FOR STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS
Grant, O Lord, to all students and scholars, that they may love that which is worth loving, know that which is worth knowing, praise that which is worthy of praise, and seek that which is worth finding. Endow this life of the mind with courage, discernment, modesty, and grace; and in the search for that truth which sets us free, grant us the wisdom which is found most perfectly in you.
FOR THIS UNIVERSITY CHURCH COMMUNITY

O God of memory and hope, may the doors of this church be wide enough to receive all who seek human fellowship and divine love, and narrow enough to shut out all envy, malice, and pride. Here may the tempted find help, the sorrowful find comfort, the fearful courage. Here may the indifferent be awakened to new purpose, and the penitent assured of mercy. And here, may all your children renew their strength and go on their way in hope and joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR MISSION

The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.

MUSIC NOTES

Sir Hubert Parry was born in Bournemouth, England, and attended Eton College and Exeter College, Oxford. A scholar as well as a composer, Parry worked for Sir Henry Groves’s new Dictionary of Music and Musicians as an editor and contributor, and in 1883 was appointed Professor of Musical History at the Royal College of Music, London, later to become Professor of Music at Oxford University. His music was to have a profound influence on a generation of later composers, including Elgar and Vaughan Williams. Parry’s six Songs of Farewell were written between 1916 and 1918, and are an intensely personal response to the horrors of war; the fourth of the set, “There is an old belief,” is a sonorous six-voice setting of words by the Scottish poet, novelist, and biographer John Gibson Lockhart.

Sir Edward Elgar was born near Worcester in the west of England, and first made a living as a freelance musician, teacher, and conductor. His breakthrough as a composer came with the Imperial March (1897), and his reputation solidified with the Enigma Variations (1899) and The Dream of Gerontius (1900). Public recognition soon followed: he composed music for the coronation of King Edward VII in 1902, was awarded a knighthood in 1904, and a baronetcy in 1931. Much of the music for which Elgar is remembered today was written before the outbreak of the Great War: the war of 1914–18 deeply affected the composer and diminished his creative inspiration and energy. He would write little for the rest of his life, and few notable works, with the exception of the melancholic Cello Concerto of 1918–19.

Great Is the Lord is a setting of Psalm 48 and was first performed in Westminster Abbey in July 1912. The work opens with a grand statement from the tenors and basses, which leads into an ethereal answer from the upper voices, followed by a combination of both themes. There is an abrupt change of mood for the section beginning “For, lo! The kings assembled themselves” which leads into a passage of quasi-recitative at the words “As we have heard.” Elgar sets the text “We have thought on Thy loving-kindness” as a lyrical baritone solo, which is followed by an undulating passage at the words “Let mount Zion be glad” before the return of the opening material heralding the work’s majestic conclusion.

Parry’s first set of chorale preludes, written around the same time as Great Is the Lord, is based on common hymns of the day. Today’s prelude is based on the hymn tune St. Anne, the first hymn sung in today’s service. Elgar’s set of Vesper Voluntaries was written at Oaklands, South London, where Elgar and his wife spent the winter following their marriage in May of 1889; this morning’s postlude is the lilting final movement and elegiac coda of the complete work.
