Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

CONFESSION
In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: Cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

It is truly right, good and joyful, to give you thanks, all holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to the fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, we lift our voices as we sing:

MUSIC NOTES
This morning, the Harvard University Choir presents movements from Gabriel Fauré’s beloved Requiem, in commemoration of All Saints and All Souls. Fauré studied at the famous École Niedermeyer in Paris, where his teachers included Camille Saint-Saëns; in 1877 he took over Saint-Saëns’s position as choirmaster of the Madeleine Church, where he would remain for twenty years. He also taught at the Paris Conservatoire, becoming its director in 1905, where his pupils included Maurice Ravel and Nadia Boulanger. Fauré began sketches for the Requiem in 1887, and during the early stages of composition his mother died: the first performance, which took place at the Madeleine on 16 January 1888, was a timely memorial. The work was subsequently revised and augmented a number of times, (new movements were added, and the performing forces increased substantially), but in essence it remains a comforting and contemplative musical meditation, free of the angst and torment of so many other settings.

Louis Vierne studied with César Franck and Charles-Marie Widor at the Paris Conservatory. He so impressed the latter that he became Widor’s deputy at the Grand Orgue of Saint-Sulpice from 1892 to 1900; he subsequently became the principal organist of Notre-Dame, a post he held until his death in 1937. Vierne’s twenty-four “Fantasy” pieces (1926–27) were written in homage to Bach’s great collection, “The Well-Tempered Clavier;” Requiem aeternam is dedicated to the memory of Vierne’s brother, Edward.
