You’re Invited!

The Memorial Church is in need of Church School teachers for the upcoming academic year. This is a fun, creative on-campus job where you’ll be able to connect with a diverse and enthusiastic group of kids, be part of the vibrant Memorial Church community, and gain invaluable leadership skills in planning and implementing weekly class sessions. Our program serves students from pre-k to 6th grade. Teachers will have the opportunity to lead age-specific sessions throughout the year. This is an exciting, historic year to be involved at the Memorial Church and the Church School is a fun, vibrant way to be a part of it!

Responsibilities:

- Leading or co-leading age specific classes (pre-k/k, 1st-2nd, 3rd-4th, 5th-6th) during the Sunday morning worship service with access to a full curriculum of online and hard copy resources, as well as games, toys, and crafts
- Getting to know the kids, being a role model and an older friend to them throughout the year
- Bringing your ideas for how to create a diverse, inclusive, warm, welcoming program

Time Commitment:

- Arriving at Memorial Church no later than 10:30 a.m. each Sunday and staying until roughly 12:30 p.m.
- Twice-monthly team meetings to plan activities and check-in on how everyone is doing (these meetings will likely take place on Sunday mornings, depending on teachers’ schedules)
- The Church School is open Sunday mornings while Harvard classes are in session (you would not need to be here during school vacations). While it is important that you be with us every Sunday, it is possible to have one or two Sundays away when given advance notice.

Compensation:

Teacher compensation is $1,000 dollars per year ($500 per semester).

Apply:

Brief interviews will be held next week. To interview for the position, please contact the Ministry Fellow, Alanna Copenhaver, at alanna_copenhaver@harvard.edu, no later than Thursday, September 11th. Please include the following information:

- Your name and university affiliation (Class year/graduation program, etc.)
- Your availability for an interview the week of September 14-20, 2014
- A brief description (short paragraph) of your interest in the position and/or list of relevant activities/studies.

Come join us for what is sure to be an incredible year!
