Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.

Welcome
Today is the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany. The preacher is Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The service is led by the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church, and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Suzanne Hamner. The second lesson is read by Easley Hamner. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory and anthem are taken from archival recordings of the Harvard University Choir. The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

Music Notes
Born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Leo Sowerby spent most of his career in Chicago, where he was on the faculty of the American Conservatory for more than forty years, and organist and choirmaster of St. James Episcopal Cathedral for nearly as long. Winner of the 1946 Pulitzer Prize for Music, for his Canticle of the Sun, Sowerby was often called the “Dean of American church music” and he ended his career at the Washington National Cathedral where he became the founding director of the College of Church Musicians. Sowerby’s serene Eternal Light is a setting of the beautiful medieval 8th-century Alcuin prayer.

Herbert Howells was born in Gloucestershire, England, and studied with Charles Stanford and Charles Wood at the Royal College of Music. He was the most important English composer of the generation to succeed Elgar, Vaughan Williams, and Holst, and his contribution to the renaissance of English choral music in the twentieth century is unparalleled. Howells composed over twenty settings of the Evening Canticles (Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis), and the one for Gloucester Cathedral is one of the earliest and one of his most famous. The ethereal, soaring melodies of the Nunc Dimittis reflect the architecture of one of Britain’s most beautiful cathedrals.

William Mathias was one of the foremost Welsh composers of the twentieth century. He composed fluently in a wide variety of genres, though internationally remains most well-known for his organ and sacred choral music. One of his most popular organ pieces, Processional, is a cheerful, rondo-like march. A student of Marcel Dupré, Marcel Lanquetuit studied at the Paris Conservatory and was appointed principal organist at St. Ouen in Rouen, France, a position he held until his death. Known as a concert organist and pedagogue, his reputation as a composer is almost solely based on the exciting Toccata in D major, one of few works that survived a house fire in 1940.

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH   LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing praises to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his name always, for it is seemly so to do. praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice. doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take. firm - ly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; with our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he proach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times.

3 O enter then his gates with praise, appear why? The Lord our God is good, his folk, and shall from age to age endure.

4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his life, and shall from age to age endure.
Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise
Walter C. Smith, 1867, alt.

ST. DENIO 11 11 11 11
Welsh melody, c. 1810
adapt. John Roberts, 1839

1 Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes, most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, all mighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

2 Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might; thy justice like mountains high soaring above thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

3 To all life thou givest, to both great and small; in all life thou livest, the true life of all; we blossoms and flourish as leaves on the tree, and wither and perish, but naught changeth thee.

4 Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight; all days, above thy days, and we praise thee.
   All praise we would render; O help us to see 'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee.
God of Grace and God of Glory

Harry Emerson Fosdick, 1930, alt.

REGENT SQUARE 87 87 87
Henry Thomas Smart, 1867

1 God of grace and God of glory, on thy people pour thy power;
2 Lo! the hosts of evil round us scorn thy Christ, as sail his ways!
3 Cure thy children’s war-ranginess; bend our pride to thy control;
4 Set our feet on lofty places; gird our lives that they may be crown thine ancient Church’s story; bring her bud to glorious flower.

From the fears that long havebound us, free our hearts to faith and praise.
shame our wanton, selfish gladness, rich in things and poor in soul.
ar-mored with all Christ-like graces in the fight to set us free.

Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, for the facing of this hour.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, for the living of these days.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, lest we miss thy kingdom’s goal.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, serving thee whom we adore.
