Prelude
Träumerei, Op. 15, No. 7 (1838)
Robert Schumann (1810–1856)

Hymn
No. 146, “Jesus, Who This Our Lententide” Rockingham

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

Call to Worship
from Psalm 130 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Out of the depths we cry to you, O God.
God, hear our voice!

People: Let your ears be attentive to the voice of our supplications!

Minister: If you should mark iniquities, O God, who of us could stand?

People: But there is forgiveness with you;
and plenteous redemption.

Minister: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in God’s word I hope.

People: My soul waits for the Lord
more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord.

Confession
In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assurance of Pardon
HYMN
No. 81, “Lord of All Hopefulness, Lord of All Joy”
See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

GREETING

OFFERTORY
The offering collected goes directly to fund the Memorial Church Grants Committee’s recipient organizations and their important work in our local communities. Checks can be written to the Memorial Church with the memo line “Grants Committee.” Give online at https://memorialchurch.harvard.edu/donate.

Psalm 130  De profundis
Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord;
    Lord, hear my voice.
O let thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint.
If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss,
    O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee; therefore shalt thou be feared.
I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him;
    in his word is my trust.
My soul fleeth unto the Lord before the morning watch;
    I say, before the morning watch.
O Israel, trust in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy,
    and with him is plenteous redemption.
And he shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

DOXOLOGY
The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

FIRST LESSON
Ezekiel 37:1–14
from the New Revised Standard Version (OT)
ANTHEM
Iudica me, Deus
Plainsong, Tone IV

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man.

For thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.
O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Psalm 43: 1–3 (sung in Latin)

SECOND LESSON
John 11:1–6, 20–27, 32–44
from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)

PRAYER HYMN
The congregation remains seated.

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER
In unison:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.
ANTHEM
Confitebor tibi, Domine

I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart; O do well unto thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word: quicken thou me, according to thy word, O Lord.

Psalm 119: 7, 10, 17, 25 (sung in Latin)

SERMON
Life Renewed

HYMN
No. 333, “God of Grace and God of Glory”

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE
Soliloquy (1996)

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
ANNUCIALMENTS
Sunday, March 29, 2020

WELCOME
Today is the Fifth Sunday in Lent. The preacher and worship leader is Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The worship leaders are the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. The first and second lessons are read by the Rev. Cornell Williams Brooks, Professor of the Practice of Public Leadership and Social Justice and Director of The William Monroe Trotter Collaborative for Social Justice, Harvard Kennedy School. The music is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster and David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES
The Book of Psalms has provided comfort and solace in times of trouble and adversity for millennia, and this morning’s chants (taken from the Mass Propers for the Fifth Sunday of Lent) assemble verses from this familiar collection that seem as relevant today as ever.

One of Robert Schumann’s most beloved pieces, Träumerei (Dreaming) is taken from the composer’s collection Kinderszenen (Scenes from Childhood). An introspective miniature, the work is, nevertheless, full of large emotional phrases; it is heard this morning in an arrangement for violin and organ.

David Conte is Professor of Music at San Francisco Conservatory and a noted composer of music for the church, including many organ works. Soliloquy is in a simple ABA form: the A section contains a lyrical flute melody, while the B section becomes more animated and builds to a rousing climax.

LISTEN TO SUNDAY WORSHIP AND MORNING PRAYERS
Sunday services are broadcast on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM in term; a live stream of the service is available at whrb.org. Recordings of Sunday Worship Services and Sunday Sermons are available on our website, memorialchurch.harvard.edu, during the week following the service. Sunday Sermons and Morning Prayers are also available on SoundCloud at http://bit.ly/sundaysermons and http://bit.ly/morningprayers respectively, and on iTunes—search “Harvard Memorial Church” from your iTunes app.

harm. Hymnal 1982

1 Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose love, and grace, and strength, who can destroy, there at our waking, and give us, we pray, your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

2 Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose trust, ever child-like, no cares could destroy, be there at our labors, and give us, we pray, your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

3 Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace, whose hands swift were skilled at the plane and the lathe, be there at our homing, and give us, we pray, your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

4 Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm, whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm, be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray, your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.
