Call to Worship
_from Psalm 118_

_MINISTER:_ The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

_People:_ This is the Lord’s doing;

 and it is marvelous in our eyes.

_MINISTER:_ The Lord is God and has given us light.

 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

_People:_ This is the day that the Lord has made;

 let us rejoice and be glad in it.

_MINISTER:_ Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

Confession
_In unison:_

Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Laudibus in sanctis

William Byrd (ca. 1539–1623)

Laudibus in sanctis Dominum celebrate supremum,
Firmamenta sonent inclita facta Dei.
Inclita facta Dei cantate, sacraque potentis
Voce potestatem saepe sonate manus.

Magnificum Domini cantet tuba martia nomen,
Pieria Domino concelebrate lira.
Laude Dei, resonant resonantia tympana summi,
Alta sacri resonent organa laude Dei.

Hunc arguta canant tenui psalteria corda,
Hunc agili laudent laeta chorea pede.
Concava divinas effundant cymbala laudes,
Cymbala dulcisona laude repleta Dei,
Omne quod aetheris in mundo vescitur auris,
Halleluia canat, tempus in omne Deo.

ANTHEM

I Beseech You Therefore, Brethren (2011)
Craig Phillips (b. 1961)

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

WELCOME
Today is the Fourth Sunday of Easter. The preacher is the Reverend Mariama White-Hammond, Founding Pastor, New Roots AME Church. The service is led by Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School; the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church; and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. Today’s choral offerings are taken from the Harvard University Choir’s 2014 recording “Spring Bursts Today” (Edward Jones, director; Christian Lane, organ). The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES
William Byrd represents the pinnacle of artistic achievement in the Tudor period: a prolific and versatile composer in virtually all genres, his music could be heard in the great cathedrals, in private chapels, at court, and in domestic amateur music-making. Indeed, the quality of his output even transcended the bitter religious divisions of the time, and his music was admired and performed by Protestants and Roman Catholics alike. Byrd’s Cantiones Sacrae (1591) opens with the ebullient “Laudibus in sanctis,” a stylized paraphrase of Psalm 150. This work shows Byrd to be a complete master of the new late-sixteenth-century style: full of madrigalisms, it uses rhythmic syncopation, onomatopoeic word setting, and a spritely triple-time section in which the music breaks into dance.

Craig Phillips is Director of Music at All Saints’ Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills, California. “I Beseech You Therefore, Brethren” was originally commissioned by members of the Class of 1978 to celebrate the retirement of The Reverend Professor Peter J. Gomes; it has now become a memorial to his legacy. The text—a favorite of Professor Gomes—highlights the importance of charitable service and sacrifice, sentiments that are a fitting tribute to his lifelong work. The music is lilting and comforting, and builds to a rousing central peak, before dying away back to the mood of the opening.

This morning, we hear two transcriptions for violin and organ performance (by one player). It should be noted that J. S. Bach was not only a keyboardist and conductor, but a violinist as well. These transcriptions were inspired by Danish-German organist, violinist, and composer, Nicolaus Bruhns (1685–1697). In the middle section of Bruhns’s Praeludium in E minor (Groß), the performer has the option to play the violin and organ at the same time.

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH    LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.
2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; with our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he name always, for it is seemly so to do.
3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his firm ly stood, and shall from age to age endure.
4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
