ORDER OF WORSHIP

PRELUDE
“Le cygne” from Le carnaval des animaux (1886)   Camille Saint-Saëns (1835–1921)

HYMN
No. 1, st. 1 & 4, “All People That on Earth Do Dwell”   Old Hundredth
See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

CALL TO WORSHIP
from Psalm 118

Minister: The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

People: This is the Lord’s doing;
and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Minister: The Lord is God and has given us light.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

People: This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

CONFESSION
In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON
HYMN
No. 171, “Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven”
See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

Laudibus in sanctis
William Byrd (ca. 1539–1623)

Laudibus in sanctis Dominum celebrate supremum, Firmamenta sonent inclita facta Dei.
Inclita facta Dei cantate, sacraque potentis
Voce potestatem saepe sonate manus.

Magnificum Domini cantet tuba martia nomen, Pieria Domino concelebrate lira.
Laude Dei, resonent resonantia tympana summi,
Alta sacri resonent organa laude Dei.

Hunc arguta canant tenui psalteria corda,
Hunc agili laudet laeta chorea pede.
Concava divinas effundant cymbala laudes,
Cymbala dulcisona laude repleta Dei,
Omne quod aetheris in mundo vescitur auris,
Halleluia canat, tempus in omne Deo.

Paraphrase of Psalm 150
DOXOLOGY
The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

FIRST LESSON
1 Peter 1: 17–23 from the New Revised Standard Version (OT)

ANTHEM
I Beseech You Therefore, Brethren (2011) Craig Phillips (b. 1961)

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Romans 12:1–2

SECOND LESSON

PRAYER HYMN
The congregation remains seated.

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.
THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER
In unison:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.

ANTHEM
Now the Green Blade Riseth French Carol, arr. Simon Lindley (b. 1948)

Now the green blade riseth, from the buried grain,
Wheat that in dark earth many days has lain;
Love lives again, that with the dead has been:
Love is come again, like wheat that springeth green.

In the grave they laid him, Love whom men had slain,
Thinking that never he would wake again,
Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen:
Love is come again, like wheat that springeth green.

Forth he came at Easter, like the risen grain,
He that for three days in the grave had lain;
Quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen:
Love is come again, like wheat that springeth green.

When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain,
Thy touch can call us back to life again,
Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been:
Love is come again, like wheat that springeth green.

J. M. C. Crum (1872–1958)

SERMON
Burning Hearts
HYMN
No. 174, “Thine Be the Glory, Risen, Conquering Son” Maccabaeus

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE
Te Deum, Op. 11 (1957/58)
Jeanne Demessieux (1921–1968)

OUR MISSION

The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
WELCOME

Today is the Third Sunday of Easter. The preacher is the Reverend Dr. Matthew Potts, Affiliated Minster in the Memorial Church, Associate Professor of Religion and Literature and of Ministry Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The service is led by Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Lauren Church ’21, Student Deacon in the Memorial Church. The second lesson is read by Jeromel Lara ’23, Student Deacon in the Memorial Church. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. Today’s choral offerings are taken from the Harvard University Choir’s 2014 recording “Spring Bursts Today” (Edward Jones, director; Christian Lane, organ). The prelude and postlude are archival recordings by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES

William Byrd represents the pinnacle of artistic achievement in the Tudor period: a prolific and versatile composer in virtually all genres, his music could be heard in the great cathedrals, in private chapels, at court, and in domestic amateur music-making. Indeed, the quality of his output even transcended the bitter religious divisions of the time, and his music was admired and performed by Protestants and Roman Catholics alike. Byrd’s Cantiones Sacrae (1591) opens with the ebullient “Laudibus in sanctis,” a stylized paraphrase of Psalm 150. This work shows Byrd to be a complete master of the new late-sixteenth-century style: full of madrigalisms, it uses rhythmic syncopation, onomatopoeic word setting, and a spirited triple-time section in which the music breaks into dance.

Craig Phillips is Director of Music at All Saints’ Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills, California. “I Beseech You Therefore, Brethren” was originally commissioned by members of the Class of 1978 to celebrate the retirement of The Reverend Professor Peter J. Gomes; it has now become a memorial to his legacy. The text—a favorite of Professor Gomes—highlights the importance of charitable service and sacrifice, sentiments that are a fitting tribute to his lifelong work. The music is lilting and comforting, and builds to a rousing central peak, before dying away back to the mood of the opening.

Simon Lindley is Organist Emeritus of Leeds Minster, where he served for over forty years. A noted composer and arranger of works for choir and organ, his contemplative setting of the Easter carol “Now the Green Blade Riseth” reflects a more tender and inward response to the Easter message.

Today’s prelude, “The Swan” (Le cygne), is from The Carnival of the Animals, a fourteen-movement musical menagerie by French romantic composer Camille Saint-Saëns. Originally scored for two pianos and cello, this morning’s prelude is a transcription for solo violin with organ accompaniment. The melody evokes imagery of a swan elegantly gliding over water amidst rippling sixteenth-note arpeggiations (indicative of the swan’s feet, hidden from view beneath the water, propelling it along).

French organist-composer Jeanne Demessieux’s brilliant concert career encompassed more than 700 concerts throughout Europe and the United States. After performing on the organ of St. John the Divine in New York City, Demessieux was inspired to compose a work that would make full use of the instrument. The resulting work, her Te Deum, is based on the traditional plainsong melody, an early Christian hymn of praise. This work is characterized by its stark chromaticism, virtuosic writing, scintillating registrations, and robust finish.

LISTEN TO SUNDAY WORSHIP AND MORNING PRAYERS

Sunday services are broadcast on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM in term; a live stream of the service is available at whrb.org. Recordings of Sunday Worship Services and Sunday Sermons are available on our website, memorialchurch.harvard.edu, during the week following the service. NEXT SUNDAY’S SERVICE

Next Sunday is the Fourth Sunday of Easter. The preacher will be Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School.
All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH    LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing
2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; with -
3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach
4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his name to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his out our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he proach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.

doeth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
name always, for it is seemly so to do.
firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven

Christopher Wordsworth, 1872, alt.

LUX EOI 87 87 D
Arthur Seymour Sullivan, 1874

1 Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
sing to God a hymn of gladness, sing to God a hymn of praise:

2 Christ is risen, Christ the first fruits of the holy harvest field, which will all its full abundance at his second coming yield;

3 Christ is risen, we are risen; shed upon us heavenly grace, rain, and dew, and gleams of glory from the brightness of thy face;

4 Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to God on high,
Alleluia to the Savior, who has gained the victory;

He who on the cross a victim for the world’s salvation bled, then the golden ears of harvest will their heads before him wave, that we, with our hearts in heaven, here on earth may fruitful be,

Alleluia to the Spirit, fount of love and sanctity;

Jesus Christ, the King of glory, now is risen from the dead.
ripened by his glorious sunshine, from the furrows of the grave.

and by angel hands be gathered, and be ever, Lord, with thee.
Alleluia! Alleluia! to the Triune Majesty.
1 Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
2 Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
3 No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of Life;

endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife.

angels in bright rayment rolled the stone away,
let the Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
Make us more than conquerors through thy deathless love;
