ORDER OF WORSHIP

PRELUDE
Vocalise, Op. 34, No. 14

Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873–1943)
(trans. Patricia Bird)

HYMN
No. 1, st. 1 & 4, “All People That on Earth Do Dwell”

Old Hundredth

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

CALL TO WORSHIP
from Psalm 36 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Your steadfast love, O Lord, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

People: Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your judgments are like the great deep.

Minister: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

People: For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

CONFESSION
In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

HYMN
No. 306, “There Is a Balm in Gilead”

Balm in Gilead

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

What is Good, Op. 1308
Carson Cooman ’04 (b. 1982)
Written for the inauguration of Lawrence S. Bacow as the 29th President of Harvard University

You have been told, O mortal, what is good, and what is required of you:
To do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

DOXOLOGY
The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

FIRST LESSON
Micah 6:1–8
from the New Revised Standard Version (OT)

ANTHEM
Heal the Land (2016)
Braxton D. Shelley (b. 1990)

Everywhere you turn: bad news, tragedies; people are confused, worried, depressed, wondering what to do.
Lord, we know you see, that you care, and you’re concerned about our misery.
We want to know: is there a word from the Lord?
“If my people, who are called by my name, if they will humble themselves and pray, look up and listen, and turn from their wicked ways, I will heal the land.”
Breathe on us!
Rain on us!
Heal the land, Lord!
“I will heal their land.”
SECOND LESSON
Matthew 25:31–40

from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)

PRAYER HYMN
The congregation remains seated.

Day by day, dear Lord, of theethreethings I pray: to see theemore clear-ly,- love theemore dear-ly,- fol low theemore near-ly,- day by day.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER
In unison:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.

SERMON
Because They Are Hard Text: “He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Micah 6:8
HYMN
No. 272, “Lift Every Voice and Sing”
See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE
Nun danket alle Gott (Marche triomphale) Op. 65, No. 59 (1908) Sigfrid Karg-Elert (1877–1933)

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
WELCOME
Today is the Fourth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher is Reverend Professor Braxton D. Shelley, Stanley A. Marks and William H. Marks Assistant Professor at the Radcliffe Institute; Assistant Professor of Music in the Harvard Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The service is led by Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School, the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church, and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Joy Nesbitt. The second lesson is read by Jeremy Williams. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory is an archival recording of the Harvard University Choir. The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster. The anthem is from the 2018 album “Sermons in Song” by Braxton Shelley and Testimony.

MUSIC NOTES
Composer in Residence Carson Cooman’s What Is Good was written for the inauguration of Lawrence S. Bacow as the 29th President of Harvard University and first performed by the inauguration choir in Tercentenary Theatre in October 2018. For our main musical offering, it is a joy to feature a composition penned and performed by this morning’s preacher, the Reverend Professor Braxton Shelley, a faculty member in the music department.

Written for Russian coloratura soprano Antonina Nezhdenova, Sergei Rachmaninoff’s Vocalise is the last piece of his 14 Romances, Op. 34. Originally scored for high voice with piano accompaniment, the song contains no words and is to be sung on any one vowel of the singer’s choosing. The work is thus equally effective played on various instruments, and this morning’s prelude is an organ transcription by Patricia Bird. German composer Sigfrid Karg-Elert was known for his extensive output for organ and harmonium. His Chorale Improvisation on “Nun danket alle Gott” comes from a set of 66 improvisations. Cast as a march, the work weaves motifs of the chorale tune into colorful flourishes, unexpected cadences, and a rousing finish.
COFFEE HOUR
Join us for a weekly virtual MemChurch Coffee Hour following each Sunday worship service from 12:15–1:00pm EST. This will be a time for us to check in with one another, to reflect on the day’s sermon and to be together in community. To participate, please email Elizabeth Montgomery (elizabeth_montgomery@harvard.edu) before 12:00pm.

CHURCH SCHOOL
The Church School has resumed its virtual meetings for the Summer Term. Contact Ministry Fellow, Rev. Westley (Wes) Conn (westley_conn@harvard.edu) to learn more.

INTERFAITH SPACE OF HEALING AND ACTION
The student-led Harvard Interfaith Forum and FRESI (Facilitators of Religious, Ethical and Spiritual Inquiry) are holding a Virtual Healing Space on Sundays, with a moderated discussion on faith and racial justice, followed by An Hour of Action for Racial Justice each Sunday from 2:00–4:00pm. The Zoom link is https://bit.ly/interfaithRJ, and the password is faithacts.

SUMMER WORSHIP SCHEDULE
We are delighted to share the news of our continued broadcasting of worship on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM, throughout the summer. Summer worship begins today and concludes on Sunday, August 2. During this time we will also offer a virtual coffee hour following worship. Please check our website for more details. Although our congregation is far-flung, we are so glad to continue worshipping alongside you during this difficult time. A special thank you to our partner, WHRB, for working with us to extend our broadcast services.

Sunday services are broadcast on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM in term; a live stream of the service is available at whrb.org. Recordings of Sunday Worship Services and Sunday Sermons are available on our website, memorialchurch.harvard.edu, during the week following the service. Sunday Sermons and Morning Prayers are also available on SoundCloud at http://bit.ly/sundaysermons and http://bit.ly/morningprayers respectively, and on iTunes—search “Harvard Memorial Church” from your iTunes app.

Next Sunday is the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher will be the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church.
All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.
doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
name always, for it is seemingly so to do.
firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; with out our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he proach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times

3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times

4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.
doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
name always, for it is seemingly so to do.
firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.
