ORDER OF WORSHIP

PRELUDE
There is a Happy Land
I Love Thee, My Lord

HYMN
No. 1, st. 1 & 4, “All People That on Earth Do Dwell”

CALL TO WORSHIP
from Psalm 36 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Your steadfast love, O Lord, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

People: Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your judgments are like the great deep.

Minister: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

People: For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

CONFESSION
In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

HYMN
No. 188, “I Sing the Mighty Power of God”
GREETING & THE PEACE

OFFERTORY

The offering collected goes directly to fund the Memorial Church Grants Committee’s recipient organizations and their important work in our local communities. Checks can be written to the Memorial Church with the memo line “Grants Committee.” Give online at https://memorialchurch.harvard.edu/donate.

Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart.
Lord, I want to be more holy in my heart.
Lord, I want to be like Jesus,
Lord, I want to be more holy,
Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart.

DOXOLOGY

The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

FIRST LESSON

Mark 10:46–52  from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)
ANTHEM
Be still, my soul, and rest upon the Lord in quiet certainty.
For He has come to rescue you from doubt.
And now you stand in blazing glory of a risen sun that cannot set.
It will forever be exactly as it is.
You stand with Him within a radiance prepared for you
Before time was and far beyond its reach.
Be still and know.
And knowing, be you sure your Lord has come to you.
There is no doubt that stands before His countenance,
Nor can conceal from you what He would have you see.
The sun has risen. He has come at last.
Where stands His presence there can be no past.
Be still, my soul, and rest upon the Lord who comes to keep the promise,
The promise of His Word.

Helen Schucman (1909–1981)

SECOND LESSON
Matthew 5:3–16  from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)

PRAYER HYMN
The congregation remains seated.
Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.
THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

_In unison:_
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.

SERMON

Sitting by the Side of the Road

Text: “Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.”

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Grosser Gott, wir loben dich, Op. 70 No. 10

Flor Peeters (1903–1986)

OUR MISSION

The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
Today is the Eighth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher is Sergeant Kevin Bryant, Affiliated Minister in the Memorial Church; Security Services Coordinator and Diversity/Community Liaison, Harvard University Police Department. The service is led by Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School, the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church, and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Lawrence Jia ’23, Student Deacon in the Memorial Church. The second lesson is read by Grace Killian, MDiv ’20. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory and anthem are taken from the Harvard University Choir’s 2007 CD Sing the Glory! The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES

Moses Hogan was a gifted concert pianist, conductor, and founder of the Moses Hogan Chorale, who died at a tragically young age. It is for his contemporary settings of spirituals, however, that he is most widely remembered: “Lord, I Want to Be a Christian” is one of his most powerful arrangements.

Craig Phillips is Director of Music at All Saints’ Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills, California. The Risen Sun is a setting of words by Dr. Helen Schucman, a psychologist from New York City whose collection of poetry The Gifts of God was, she claims, divinely inspired. The music is lilting and comforting, and builds to a rousing central peak, before dying away back to the mood of the opening.

British jazz pianist George Shearing composed over 300 works, including the jazz standard, “Lullaby of Birdland.” His organ works came about at the suggestion of Dale Wood, then editor of Sacred Music Press. Shearing was blind from birth and so composed the pieces directly onto a recording from which they were transcribed. Wood and Shearing then edited the music and worked out the organ realizations and sounds together at an organ console. The pieces are based on traditional American folk hymns and display both classical and jazz influences.
Belgian composer and organist Flor Peeters was born in the village of Tielen. Though trained in France (and a life-long love of French music, particularly Franck and Dupré, informed his own recital programming), his Flemish identity was always very important to him. He taught organ at the Lemmens Institute in Mechelen, the Ghent Conservatory, the Tilburg Conservatory, and the Antwerp Conservatory. He was chief organist at St. Rombouts Cathedral in Mechelen, a position he held until near the end of his life. As an organ recitalist, he toured Europe, the Philippines, South Africa, and the USA (10 transcontinental tours)—playing more than 1200 organ recitals in total. Peeters’s musical style was influenced primarily by Gregorian chant, Flemish Renaissance polyphony, and Flemish folk music. He had a preference for classical forms and contrapuntal textures, and a particular love for imaginative uses of modality. In addition to numerous original works, he composed many volumes of hymn settings. “Grosser Gott, wir loben Dich,” Op. 70 No. 10 is cast as a flashy toccata with the tune played by booming pedal reeds.

ORGAN RECITAL
David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster, will give a virtual recital this afternoon at 5:00pm EST from the First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska. The recital will be live-streamed from https://www.abendmusik.org.

COFFEE HOUR
Join us for a weekly virtual MemChurch Coffee Hour following each Sunday worship service from 12:15–1:00pm. This will be a time for us to check in with one another, to reflect on the day’s sermon and to be together in community. To participate, please email Elizabeth Montgomery (elizabeth_montgomery@harvard.edu) before 12:00pm.

CHURCH SCHOOL
Next Sunday will conclude Church School for the Summer Term. Contact Ministry Fellow, Rev. Westley (Wes) Conn (westley_conn@harvard.edu) to learn more. The Church School will resume in the Fall Term.

SUMMER PROGRAMMING
Our summer reading group will conclude on Wednesday, July 29, 7:00pm. We will discuss “An Interview with Professor Evelynn Hammonds: How Racism is Shaping the Coronavirus Pandemic” by Isaac Chotiner, The New Yorker. To participate, please email Elizabeth Montgomery (elizabeth_montgomery@harvard.edu) before the start of the event.
SUMMER WORSHIP SCHEDULE
Summer worship concludes next Sunday, August 2. Worship will resume on Sunday, August 30 with our continued broadcasting of services on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM, throughout the summer. Please check our website for more details. Although our congregation is far-flung, we are so glad to continue worshipping alongside you during this difficult time. A special thank you to our partner, WHRB, for working with us to extend our broadcast services throughout this summer.

Sunday services are broadcast on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM in term; a live stream of the service is available at whrb.org. Recordings of Sunday Worship Services and Sunday Sermons are available on our website, memorialchurch.harvard.edu, during the week following the service. Sunday Sermons and Morning Prayers are also available on SoundCloud at http://bit.ly/sundaysermons and http://bit.ly/morningprayers respectively, and on iTunes—search “Harvard Memorial Church” from your iTunes app.

NEXT SUNDAY’S SERVICE
Next Sunday is the Ninth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher will be Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School.
All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH  LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.
doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
name always, for it is seemly so to do.
firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

2 Know that the Lord is God in deed; with our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he out our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he proach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times

3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times

4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his

I sing the mighty power of God, that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies. I formed the creatures with a word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from thy throne. While sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day; the how thy wonders are displayed, where'er I turn my eye: if all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy care, and moon shines full at God's command, and all the stars obey. I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky! everywhere that I could be, thou, God, art present there.

1 Jesus shall reign wher’er the sun
doth its successive journeys run;
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore
and moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For him shall endless prayer be made,
and praises throng to crown his head;
his name like sweet perfume shall rise with every morn ing sacrifice no more.

3 People and realms of every tongue shall be made,
dwell on his love with sweetest song,
the prisoner leaps to lose his chains,
their earthly blessings on his name.

4 Blessings abound wher’e’er he reigns;
the prisoner leaps to lose his chains,
peccular honors to our King;
and all who suffer want are blest.

5 Let every creature rise and bring peculiar honors to our King;
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore
and moons shall wax and wane no more.
