CALL TO WORSHIP
from Psalm 36 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Your steadfast love, O Lord, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

People: Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your judgments are like the great deep.

Minister: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

People: For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

CONFESSION

In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy (1977)  Calvin Hampton (1938–1984)

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy like the wideness of the sea;
There’s a kindness in his justice, which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior; there is healing in his blood.

There is no place where earth’s sorrows are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth’s failings have such kindly judgement given.
There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy all for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful, we would take him at his word;
And our life would be thanksgiving for the goodness of the Lord.

Frederick W. Faber (1814–1863)

DOXOLOGY

The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.
FIRST LESSON
Psalm 42

from the New Revised Standard Version (OT)

ANTHEM

Hymn to the New Age (1975)  Lee Hoiby (1926–2011)

Through the long night we have come.
The sun is bright, the wars are done.
We will unite. We will be one.
A new light has begun.

Smile, heaven on our loving land
Shine blessing on our fair kingdom.
Enrich our time to come, with growing love,
With joy abundant and long prosperous days.

God’s blessings are renewed again.
The face of freedom is revealed in sunlight.
Now sing in praise of life, with poems praise,
With voices praise, with drums, with trumpets praise.

God’s loving kingdom come to us
The gift of life and the gift of freedom.
Now shall peace reign, truth be revealed,
And all wounds be healed.

So was it ever meant to be,
Resplendent hope of humankind:
To follow with the dove the way of peace, the way of love.
So shall it be.
So shall it ever be.

SECOND LESSON
1 Corinthians 2: 1, 6–11

from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)
THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
WELCOME

Today is the Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost, First-Year Sunday. The preacher is Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The service is led by the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Alex Grayson ’22, SAB Member and Student Deacon. The second lesson is read by Jeromel Dela Rosa Lara ’23, SAB Member and Student Deacon. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory and anthem are taken from the Harvard University Choir’s 2007 CD Sing the Glory! The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster. Welcome Class of 2024! And welcome back students, faculty, staff, and community members! Thank you for worshiping with us this morning.

MUSIC NOTES

Calvin Hampton is widely considered to be one of the most important composers of American church music in the twentieth century. He was Director of Music at Calvary Episcopal Church, New York City, from 1963 to 1983, and before his untimely death at the age of 46, he developed a unique compositional voice which is heard in his extensive catalogue of hymn-tunes and works for choir and organ. Hampton’s beautiful, flowing hymn tune ST. HELENA (named after the Sisters of the Order of St. Helena who were in residence in Calvary Church) was composed specifically for Frederick Faber’s well-known text, becoming an unofficial anthem for the many American composers who died of AIDS during the 1980s. Throughout his long career, Lee Hoiby was an active standard-bearer for the cause of American neo-romanticism. Hymn to the New Age, with a text by the composer, was commissioned in 1980 by Trinity Church in New York City. Optimism and warmth of spirit are typical traits of Hoiby’s music and seem very appropriate for this First-Year Sunday.

Carson Cooman’s Fantasia on “Fair Harvard” was written in 2012 for the first Commencement week with the then-new Peter J. Gomes and Charles B. Fisk Memorial Organ. Organist and composer Carl Haywood is the Director of Choral Activities at Norfolk State University, National Conductor for the 105 Voices of History, and the Historically Black Colleges and Universities Choir. Haywood’s Improvisation on “We Shall Overcome” is characterized by incessant arpeggios ornamenting the tune. The middle section is more stately in nature, a re-harmonization of the hymn. The final section evolves into a triumphant combination of both textures, including a brilliant pedal cadenza before a final resolution with full organ.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY CHOIR AUDITIONS
For over 180 years, the Harvard University Choir has provided a unique opportunity for student singers to perform diverse choral literature at the highest level, both in concert and during the services of the Memorial Church. This fall the music program will be online because of the pandemic. Students interested in joining the Harvard University Choir should plan on participating in our fall preliminary auditions, which occur at the beginning of term. stanza 1: trans. Peter Williams, 1771 stanzas 2-3: trans. William Williams, c. 1774

CWM RHONDDA 87 87 87
John Hughes, 1905

1 Guide me, O thou great Je-ho-vah, pilgrim through this barren land;
   I am weak, but thou art mighty, hold me with thy powerful hand;
   bread of heav-en, bread of heav-en, feed me till I want no more.

2 O-pen now the crys-tal foun-tain, whence the heal-ing stream doth flow;
   let the fire and cloud-y pil-lar lead me all my jour-ney through;
   shield, (strength and shield,) be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jor-dan, bid my anx-i-ous fears sub-side;
   death of death, and hell’s de-struct-ion, land me safe on Ca-naan’s side;
   thee, (give to thee,) I will ev-er give to thee.

4 For I will ev-er hold Thy hand; and, Lord, Thou know’st I have no strength;
   They that be strong in strength will feed, but strength and shield shall be my song.
   yet, I know, in Jesus’ name, I have no fear for death;
