PRELUDE
Carson Cooman ‘04 (b. 1982)

HYMN
No. 1, st. 1 & 4, “All People That on Earth Do Dwell”
Old Hundredth

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

CALL TO WORSHIP
from Psalm 36 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Your steadfast love, O Lord, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

People: Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your judgments are like the great deep.

Minister: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

People: For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord!

CONFESSION
In unison:

Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

HYMN
No. 203, “Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”
St. Denio

GREETING & THE PEACE

OFFERTORY
The offering collected goes directly to fund the Memorial Church Grants Committee’s recipient organizations and their important work in our local communities. Checks can be written to the Memorial Church with the memo line “Grants Committee.” Give online at https://memorialchurch.harvard.edu/donate.

Sweet is the day with praise begun:
It makes our work and pleasure one to come before you, God, and raise a song, a shout, a psalm of praise.

Sweet is your voice, O Holy One,
as you declare what you have done:
you took the weight we bore away,
to make our burden light this day.

Sweet is your word, like honeycomb,
the blessing tasted by your own,
when, from the rock of daily care,
you bring the sweetness that you share.

Richard Leach (b. 1953), after Psalm 81

DOXOLOGY
The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.
FIRST LESSON
Psalm 130:1–6

from the New Revised Standard Version (OT)

ANTHEM
Truly the Light Is Sweet, Op. 884
Carson Cooman ’04

Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for eyes to behold the sun.
Rejoice, and let thy heart cheer thee in all days, and walk in the ways of the heart, and in the sight of thine eyes.

Ecclesiastes 11:7, 9, alt.

SECOND LESSON
Luke 6: 12–19

from the New Revised Standard Version (NT)

PRAYER HYMN
The congregation remains seated.

Day by day, dear Lord, of the three things I pray:
see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
THE LORD'S PRAYER

_In unison:_

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the Prayer Hymn is repeated.

SERMON

Between Solitude and Community

HYMN

No.277, “All My Hope on God Is Founded”

See end of worship bulletin. The congregation stands and sings.

OUR MISSION

The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
WELCOME
Today is the Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher is Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The service is led by the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Lily Gulledge ’21, Student Advisory Board Member. The second lesson is read by Annelisa Kingsbury Lee ’22, Student Advisory Board Member. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory and anthem are taken from the Harvard University Choir’s 2011 CD Glorious the Song. The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES
Matthew Burt is Director of Music Ministry at Transfiguration Episcopal Church, San Mateo, California. A graduate of Harvard Divinity School, and a former Research Associate in the Memorial Church, he was Managing Editor for the fourth edition of the Harvard University Hymn Book. “Sweet Is the Day” is a graceful setting of a paraphrase of Psalm 81 by contemporary poet and hymnwriter Richard Leach.

Carson Cooman is Composer-in-Residence in the Memorial Church, which has witnessed the premieres of many of his works. Truly the Light Is Sweet was written in celebration of the completion of the restoration of Appleton Chapel, and the re-emergence of the Palladian window at its east end.

“Aria” and “Toccata” are the second and first parts of Toccata, Aria, and Finale, a work that was commissioned in memory of Dorothy Virginia Garman Blankenship Laurie for the ongoing dedication events and recitals for the “Jennie Laurie Memorial Organ” at St. Andrew’s Catholic Church in Roanoke, Virginia.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY CHOIR AUDITIONS
For over 180 years, the Harvard University Choir has provided a unique opportunity for student singers to perform diverse choral literature at the highest level, both in concert and during the services of the Memorial Church. Its program of daily and weekly choral services, tours, commissions, and recordings make it one of the leading college chapel ensembles in the United States. This fall the music program will be online because of the pandemic. Students interested in joining the Harvard University Choir should plan on participating in our fall preliminary auditions, which occur at the beginning of term. Full audition information is available on our website: memorialchurch.harvard.edu/uchoir-auditions

STUDENT DEACON PROGRAM

Student Deacons is an ecumenical Christian program involving both undergraduate and graduate students. Students explore spiritual development and leadership formation within a supportive and caring faith community. To learn more, contact Student Program Fellow, Lara Glass (lara_glass@harvard.edu) and Ministry Fellow, Rev. Westley (Wes) Conn (westley_conn@harvard.edu).

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Church School will resume next Sunday, September 13, 10:00–10:45am. The Church School offers Christian education classes for children of age three through sixteen. All classes are held during Sunday services in the Fall and Spring Terms. To register and learn more, please visit the Church School for Children page on our website.

The Faith and Life Forum seeks to enrich our spirituality by promoting religious literacy and cultural competency. The Forum is held Sunday mornings during the Fall and Spring Terms and will begin next Sunday, September 13, 9:30–10:30am with Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. We are implementing a new registration method for our Fall Term programs. To participate, please visit the Faith and Life Forum page on our website.

Contact Ministry Fellow, Rev. Westley (Wes) Conn (westley_conn@harvard.edu) to learn more about opportunities for faith formation.

INSTAGRAM LIVE

Join us on Instagram Live for a 10–15 minute reflection on a practice on Thursdays at 7:00pm, beginning on September 3. Be sure to follow us @memchurch!

PRACTICING HOPE READING GROUP

You are warmly invited to join the Practicing Hope Book Group, which meets once a month, on Wednesdays, 7:00–8:00pm. This semester, we’ll be reading and discussing three books on practices: on September 16 we’ll discuss Casper ter Kuile’s The Power of Ritual: Turning Everyday Activities into Soulful Practices; on October 14 we’ll discuss Timothy Snyder’s On Tyranny: Twenty Lessons from the Twentieth Century; and on November 18, we’ll discuss Howard Thurman’s Disciplines of the Spirit. We are implementing a new registration method for our Fall Term programs. To register, please visit the Calendar on our website.

DAILY NEWSLETTER

Our daily newsletter is back! We will share the meditations, music, spiritual practices, and prayers of our far-flung community. This is also the way to receive the most up to date information about the communal and worship life of the Memorial Church. If you would like to receive our newsletter, please subscribe on our website.
MEMCAFÉ
Held virtually on Wednesday mornings from 9:30–10:15am from September 9 to December 2. Sit down at your computer or mobile device with your morning coffee and gather with us over Zoom. Each week as we check in with one another, we invite you to share a 1-2 sentence quote that has been grounding for you. Everyone is welcome! We are implementing a new registration method for our Fall Term programs. To register, please visit the Calendar on our website.

WORSHIP
Sunday services are broadcast on Harvard’s radio station, WHRB 95.3 FM in term; a live stream of the service is available at whrb.org. Recordings of Sunday Worship Services and Sunday Sermons are available on our website, memorialchurch.harvard.edu, during the week following the service. Sunday Sermons and Morning Prayers are also available on SoundCloud at http://bit.ly/sundaysermons and http://bit.ly/morningprayers respectively, and on iTunes—search “Harvard Memorial Church” from your iTunes app.

NEXT SUNDAY’S SERVICE
Next Sunday is the Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost. The preacher will be the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church.
All People That on Earth Do Dwell

para. of Psalm 100
William Kethe, 1561, alt.

OLD HUNDREDTH LM
Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing praises with cheerful voice; him serve with mirth, his name al ways, for it is seem ly so to do.
doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
praise forth tell, come ye before him and rejoice.
doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts un to;
mercy is forever sure; his truth at all times endure.
For why? The Lord our God is good, his times to us seem age.
and shall from age to age endure.

2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; with our aid he did us make; we are his folk, he proach with joy his courts un to; praise, laud, and bless his gates, sing.

3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto; praise, laud, and bless his gates, sing.

4 For why? The Lord our God is good, his times to us seem age.

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

Walter C. Smith, 1867, alt.

ST. DENIO 11 11 11 11
Welsh melody, c. 1810
adapt. John Roberts, 1839

1 Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes, most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, all might-y, victo-rious, thy great name we praise.

2 Un-rest-ing, un-hast-ing, and si-ent as light, nor want-ing, nor wast-ing, thou rul-est in might; thy just-ice like moun-tains high soaring above thy clouds which are foun-tains of goodness and love.

3 To all life thou giv-est, to both great and small, in all life thou liv-est, the true life of all; we angels adore thee, all veiling their sight; all with-er and per-ish, but naught chang-eth thee.

4 Great Fa-ther of glo-ry, pure Fa-ther of light, thine light in-ac-ces-si -ble hid from our eyes, most bless-ed, most glo-ri-ous, the An-cient of Days, al-might-y, vic-to-ri-ous, thy great name we praise.

O help us to see 'tis
