Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

DOXOLOGY

The congregation stands and sings.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all people here below.

Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

ANTHEM

Give Us the Wings of Faith (1925)

Ernest Bullock (1890–1979)

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

We ask them whence their victory came:
They, with one united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspired their breast,
And, following their incarnate God,
They reached the promised rest.

Isaac Watts (1674–1748) alt

SECOND LESSON

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

WELCOME

Today is the Twenty–Second Sunday after Pentecost, All Saints Day. The preacher is Professor Stephanie Paulsell, Interim Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, Susan Shallcross Swartz Professor of the Practice of Christian Studies, Harvard Divinity School. The service is led by the Reverend Alanna C. Sullivan, Associate Minister in the Memorial Church and the Reverend Westley P. Conn, Ministry Fellow in the Memorial Church. You will also hear the voices of some of the family members and friends with whom we are sheltering and for whose help with the liturgy we are most grateful. The first lesson is read by Louisa Rossano, Church School. The second lesson is read by Isabel Macedo, Church School. The music for this Sunday’s service is provided by Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster. The offertory and anthem are taken from archival service recordings of the Harvard University Choir. The prelude and postlude this morning were recorded on the organ at First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska this past week by David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES

René Clausen was conductor of the acclaimed Concordia Choir for over thirty years, retiring in April 2020. “Set Me As a Seal” comes from the cantata A New Creation, and has become one of the composer’s most popular works.

Ernest Bullock served in the British Army during World War I, was Organist of Westminster Abbey from 1928 to 1941, and Director of the Royal College of Music in London from 1953 to 1960. His All Saints’ anthem “Give Us the Wings of Faith” sets words from a hymn by Isaac Watts; the music rises to a central climax before ending in the same lyrical vein as it began.

The French composer Maurice Duruflé spent his whole career as Professor of Harmony at the Paris Conservatory and as Organist of the church of St-Étienne-du-Mont. His very small number of musical compositions are highly regarded for their distinctive style and technical mastery and have all entered the standard organ and choral repertoire. Duruflé’s Prelude et Fugue sur le nom d’Alain is a tribute to the composer’s friend and colleague, Jehan Alain, a brilliant organist and composer whose life was cut tragically short at the outset of World War II. Duruflé fashions the work by extending the musical alphabet beyond the letter H (the German equivalent of B natural) such that the name ALAIN becomes the musical motif ADAAF.

HONORING THE LIVES LOST TO COVID-19

We invite you to participate in a University-wide Commemoration to Honor the Lives Lost to COVID-19. In light of the innumerable losses that members of our Harvard community and beyond have experienced since the start of the pandemic, our hope is that this commemoration can be a moment to mark the ongoing tragedy and to honor those who have died. Today at 12:15pm, we will ring the bells of the Memorial Church 22 times, one toll for every 10,000 people in this country who have lost their lives to COVID-19 and for every 50,000 people worldwide. There will be additional contributions from Harvard's chaplains, as well as offices and schools across Harvard. Please find more details about participation on our website.

BOSTON CAMERATA PRESENTS DIDO AND AENEAS, WITH HARVARD CHORAL FELLOWS

The Boston Camerata presents a new streaming production of Purcell's only true opera titled "Dido and Aeneas, An Opera for Distanced Lovers." Directed by Camerata Artistic Director Anne Azéma with media elements conceived by designer Peter Torpey, this production combines a cast of world-class musicians recorded in a staged performance augmented by the participation of remote singers and silent images. The story of the ill-fated queen of Carthage, Dido, is based on Book IV of Virgil's Aeneid. It recounts her love for the shipwrecked Trojan hero Aeneas, and her despair when he abandons her. Henry Purcell's short opera, intensely powerful despite its reduced scale, distills the emotions inherent in the story, as rapidly alternating feelings of hope, disquiet, rejoicing, and mortal sorrow vie for their places in our modern-day hearts. The show will be available for streaming November 14-29, 2020, and the digital performance includes a pre-concert presentation on "Dido and Aeneas" by Massachusetts Institute of Technology Professor Emeritus and musicologist Ellen T. Harris, and a post-performance conversation between Anne Azéma and Peter Torpey. This production celebrates the 40th Anniversary year of the pioneering Camerata recording of "Dido and Aeneas" from 1979. That recording of Henry Purcell's masterpiece was the first ever to use period instruments and became a milestone in the history of recorded sound, influencing many subsequent interpretations. Conceived and produced to be viewed on screens, Azéma's production includes a stellar cast: Tahanee Aluwihare as Dido, Luke Scott as Aeneas, Camila Parias as Dido's sister Belinda, Jordan Weatherston Pitts as the Sorcerer, assisted by students from Longy School of Music of Bard College and the Harvard Choral Fellows directed by Edward Elwyn Jones. 1 Shall we gath-er at the riv-er, where bright an-gel feet have trod,
