Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Psalm 119:137–144  Justus es, Domine  chant by Paul Halley (b. 1952)

Sung by the choir

Righteous art thou, O Lord;
and true are thy judgments.
The testimonies that thou hast commanded are exceeding righteous and true.
My zeal hath even consumed me;
because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.
Thy word is tried to the uttermost,
and thy servant loveth it.
I am small and of no reputation;
yet do I not forget thy commandments.
Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
and thy law is the truth.
Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me;
yet is my delight in thy commandments.
The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting:
O grant me understanding, and I shall live.

DOXOLOGY

_Sung by the congregation, standing_

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

FIRST LESSON

Jeremiah 23:1–6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord.
Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.
The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: “The Lord is our righteousness.”
ANTHEM
I Have a Soul to Be Saved or Lost (1996)

Traditional Shaker Hymn
arr. Daniel Roihl '98 (b. 1975)

I have a soul to be saved or lost,
And if I would ever save it,
I must be faithful to bear my cross
And be true unto God who gave it.
Almighty God do hear our prayer,
In mercy O draw near;
O spare, O spare thy chosen ones
From judgments most severe.
O holy Mother lend thy hand,
Thy wisdom’s needed here;
O may this little chosen band
Learn more true godly fear.
Do Holy Savior be our prop,
Support us by thine arm;
And may we by thy teaching walk,
O keep us from all harm.
O blessed Mother do not leave
Thy needy children here;
Help us to keep God’s holy way,
And all his laws revere.

SECOND LESSON
Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult.
There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High. God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved; God will help it when the morning dawns. The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Come, behold the works of the Lord; see what desolations he has brought on the earth.
He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear; he burns the shields with fire. “Be still, and know that I am God! I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth.” The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
HYMN
The congregation seated

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Following the Lord’s Prayer, the hymn is repeated.

ANTHEM

Simple Gifts

Joseph Brackett (1797–1882)
arr. Joshua W. Bean ’16 (b. 1994)

’Tis the gift to be simple, ’tis the gift to be free,
’Tis the gift to come down where we ought to be,
And when we find our selves in the place just right,
’Twill be in the valley of love and delight.

When true simplicity is gained,
To bow and to bend we shan’t be ashamed,
To turn, turn will be our delight,
’Til by turning, turning we come ’round right.

’Tis a gift to be simple, ’tis a gift to be true,
’Tis a gift to labor ’til the day is through,
And when we find ourselves in the place so fine,
’Twill be in the cool of the birch and the pine.
’Tis a gift to be joyful, ’tis a gift to be free,
’Tis a gift, ’tis a gift, ’tis a simple gift to be,
And when you find yourself in the pure delight,
The gift to be simple has led you aright.

OUR MISSION
The Memorial Church of Harvard University is a space of grace in the center of the Yard, rooted in the good news of Jesus Christ. Affectionately known as “MemChurch,” we pursue partnerships within and beyond Harvard, empowering community members to serve the world as well-informed, compassionate, moral citizens. Through worship and ministry outreach, MemChurch aims to promote justice and mercy by confronting life’s challenges, differences, and our own imperfections with courage, empathy, and an ethic of love. By doing so, the Memorial Church seeks to educate minds, expand hearts, and enrich lives.
Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Robert Robinson, 1758

A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

1 Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesu good-ness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee: prone to some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above; praise the sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God; he, to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love; here’s my mount! I’m fixed upon it, mount of thy redeeming love. Rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood. Heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

William H. Doane, 1875

MUSIC NOTES

To celebrate the Sunday before Thanksgiving Day, this morning’s music celebrates the vibrant legacy of contemporary American church music, and features choral arrangements of American Shaker tunes by composers who are both alumni of the Harvard University Choir.

A graduate of Harvard, Yale, and the University of Southern California, Daniel Roihl ’98 is a conductor, performer, composer, and educator whose music has been heard in a variety of venues. His arrangement of the Shaker Hymn “I Have a Soul to Be Saved or Lost” was inspired by a visit to the Shaker village at Sabbathday Lake, Maine, where the Harvard University Choir recorded a CD of Shaker music.

Josh Bean ’16 wrote his arrangement of the famous shaker tune Simple Gifts for performance at Harvard’s 2016 Commencement Exercises where it was premiered in the vast expanse of Tercentenary Theatre.

Today’s prelude presents popular hymn tunes in new settings by Russell Schulz-Widmar, an important figure in American liturgical music who chaired the music committee for the Episcopal Hymnal 1982. The postlude is taken from Carson Cooman’s “Piccoli fiori musicali,” a title which pays homage to Frescobaldi’s landmark collection of keyboard music of 1635. “Hornpipe,” a jaunty dance making use of quick scalar passage work alternating with staccato chords, is the concluding piece in this collection.
