

Wednesday 14th June 2017 • 7.30 pm

Harvard Memorial Church

Free Admission

St Giles' Cathedral Choir, Edinburgh

Peter Backhouse Organist

Michael Harris Master of the Music

This is a unique opportunity to hear the choir of the mother church of Presbyterianism, St Giles' Cathedral Choir, Edinburgh.

One of Scotland's finest amateur choirs, they present a program Mainly British with classics from across the centuries, as well as some dazzling lesser-known works from Britain and Scandinavia.

Program

Mainly British

Britten Jubilate in C

Byrd Sing joyfully

Purcell *Remember not,
Lord, our offences*

MacMillan Data est mihi (Ascension)

Jonathan Dove *Gloria
(Missa Brevis)*

Dubra Miserere

Eriks Esenvalds Psalm 67

Parry There is an old belief

Elgar The spirit of the Lord

Holst Psalm 148

Gabriel Jackson
Oculi omnium

Miskinis *Dum medium
silentium*

Finzi God is gone up

plus Organ solos