Feeling Desperate
by Teresa of Avila

The earth and sky will open their purse for you and your life will change if with all your heart you say these words each day.

“Teach me, dear God, all that you know.”

One night I walked through the streets feeling desperate, in need of alchemy.

A hooded priest passed by where there were no lamps. I could not see his face, I only heard these words that he kept repeating, “Teach me, dear Lord, all the you know.”

I knew a treasure had entered my soul.

Psalms 42

1 As the deer longs for the water-brooks, * so longs my soul for you, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God; * when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

3 My tears have been my food day and night, * while all day long they say to me, “Where now is your God?”

4 I pour out my soul when I think on these things: * how I went with the multitude and led them into the house of God,

5 With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, * among those who keep holy-day.

6 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? * and why are you so disquieted within me?

7 Put your trust in God; * for I will yet give thanks to him, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.
Psalms 131

1    O Lord, I am not proud; *

        I have no haughty looks.

2    I do not occupy myself with great matters, *

        or with things that are too hard for me.

3    But I still my soul and make it quiet,

        like a child upon its mother's breast; *

        my soul is quieted within me.

4    O Israel, wait upon the Lord, *

        from this time forth for evermore.

Psalms 139

1    Lord, you have searched me out and known me; *

        you know my sitting down and my rising up;

        you discern my thoughts from afar.

2    You trace my journeys and my resting-places * and are acquainted with all my ways.

3    Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, *

        but you, O Lord, know it altogether.

4    You press upon me behind and before * and lay your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; *
it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

Where can I go then from your Spirit? *
where can I flee from your presence?

If I climb up to heaven, you are there; *
if I make the grave my bed, you are there also.

If I take the wings of the morning * and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Even there your hand will lead me *
and your right hand hold me fast.

If I say, “Surely the darkness will cover me, * and the light around me turn to night,”

Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day; *
darkness and light to you are both alike.

For you yourself created my inmost parts; *
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I will thank you because I am marvelously made; *
your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

My body was not hidden from you, *
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
all of them were written in your book; *
they were fashioned day by day,
when as yet there was none of them.

How deep I find your thoughts, O God! *
how great is the sum of them!

If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; *
to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.
Nada te turbe
Santa Teresa de Avila

Nada te turbe,
Nada te espante,
Todo se pasa,
Dios no se muda,

Let nothing trouble you,
Let nothing frighten you,
Everything passes,
God does not change.

La paciencia
Todo lo alcanza;
Quien a Dios tiene
Nada le falta:
Sólo Dios basta.

Patience
Attains all things;
Whoever has God
Lacks for nothing;
God alone is enough.

Eleva el pensamiento,
al cielo sube,
por nada te acongojes,
Nada te turbe.

Lift your thought,
to heaven it rises,
for nothing worries you,
Let nothing trouble you.

A Jesucristo sigue
con pecho grande,
y, venga lo que venga,
Nada te espante.

Remain in Jesus Christ
with great heart,
and, come what may,
Let nothing frighten you.

¿Ves la gloria del mundo?
Es gloria vana;
nada tiene de estable,
Todo se pasa.

See the glory of the world?
The glory is vain;
nothing is stable,
Everything passes.

Aspira a lo celeste,
que siempre dura;
fiel y rico en promesas,
Dios no se muda.

Aspire to the heavenly Which always endures;
faithful and abundant in promises,
God does not change.

Ámala cual merece Bondad inmensa;
pero no hay amor fino Sin la paciencia.

Love that which is worthy Immense goodness;
but no love is skilled Without patience.
Confianza y fe viva mantenga el alma,
que quien cree y espera Todo lo alcanza.

Del infierno acosado aunque se viere, burlará sus furores Quien a Dios tiene.

Vénganle desamparos, cruces, desgracias;
siendo Dios su tesoro, Nada le falta.

Id, pues, bienes del mundo; id, dichas vanas, aunque todo lo pierda, Sólo Dios basta.

Let trust and living faith maintain the soul,
that whoever believes and hopes Attains all things.

Harassed from hell, even if she sees it, whoever has God will evade its fury.

Helplessness may befall her, burdens, misfortunes;
God being her treasure, She lacks for nothing.

Go, then, worldly good; go, vain words,
even if everything is lost, God alone is enough.
