Monday

Draw Us In the Spirit's Tether

Harold Friedell

Draw us in the Spirit's tether;
For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together,
Thou art in the midst of them: Alleluia!
Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As disciples used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup. Alleluia!
So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving
We may true disciples be. Alleluia!
We will serve thee faithfully.

Tuesday

How Wondrous Great, How Glorious Bright

James Woodman

How wondrous great, how glorious bright must our Creator be,
who dwells amidst the dazzling light
of vast eternity.

Our soaring spirits upward rise to the reach the burning throne and long to see the blessed Three in the Almighty One.

While all the heavenly powers conspire eternal praise to sing,
let faith in humble notes adore
the great mysterious King.

Isaac Watts (1674–1748)

Wednesday

“He That Shall Endure to the End” from Elijah

Felix Mendelssohn

He that shall endure to the end shall be saved.

Thursday

“Come Ye Disconsolate” from Melodious Accord

arr. Alice Parker

Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish,
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts; here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope when all others die, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, in God's name saying,
“Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure.”

Here see the Bread of Life, see waters flowing Forth from the throne of God, pure from above.
Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Friday

Lord, for Thy Tender Mercy's Sake

Richard Farrant

Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but forgive that is past, and give us grace to amend our sinful lives, to decline from sin, and incline to virtue, that we may walk with an upright heart before Thee now and evermore. Amen.
