The Word Was Made Flesh

James Woodman

The word was made flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth, and we have beheld his glory, the glory as of the only Son from the Father. And from his fullness have we all received grace upon grace.

John 1:14, 16

Tuesday

O Come Hither

Maurice Greene

O come hither and hearken all ye that fear God,
And I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.
God hath heard me and considered the voice of my prayer.

Psalm 66:14, 17

Wednesday

Teach Me, O Lord

William Byrd

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes:
And I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law:
Yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments:
For therein is my desire.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies:
And not unto covetousness.

O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity:
And quicken me in thy way.

O stablish thy word in thy servant:
That I may fear thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning,
And is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen.

Psalm 119:33–38

Thursday

“Der Herr segne euch” from Cantata 196

Johann Sebastian Bach

Der Herr segne euch je mehr und mehr, euch und eure Kinder.

May the Lord bless you more and more, you and your children.

Psalm 115:13–15

Friday

Concord

Benjamin Britten

Concord is here,
Our days to bless
And this our land, our land to endue
With plenty, peace and happiness.

Concord and time,
Each needeth each:
The ripest fruit hangs where
Not one, but only two can reach.

William Plomer (1903–1973)
