Sicut cervus

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum: ita desiderat anima mea ad te, Deus.

Like as the hart desireth the waterbrooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O Lord.

Psalm 42:1 (Psalterium Romanum)

Tuesday

Gracious Spirit, Love Divine

Matthew Guerrieri

Gracious Spirit, Love divine,
Let thy light within me shine;
All my guilty fears remove,
Fill me full of heaven and love.

Life and peace to me impart;
Seal salvation on my heart;
Breathe thyself into my breast,
Earnest of immortal rest.

Speak thy pard'ning grace to me,
Set the burdened sinner free;
Lead me to the Lamb of God,
Wash me in his precious blood.

Let me never from thee stray,
Keep me in the narrow way;
Fill my soul with joy divine,
Keep me, Lord, forever thine.

John Stocker (fl. 1770s)

Wednesday

Maurice Duruflé

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor; Exultemus et in ipso iucundemur. Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum; Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero. Amen.

Where charity and love are, there is God. The love of Christ has made us one; let us rejoice and be glad in him. Let us fear and love the living God; and love one another in sincerity of heart. Amen.

Antiphon for the Washing of the Feet on Maundy Thursday

“Lift Thine Eyes” from Elijah, Op. 70

Felix Mendelssohn

Lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help.
Thy help cometh from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.
He hath said, thy foot shall not be moved, thy keeper will never slumber.

Julius Schubring (1806–1889), after Psalm 121:1–3

Friday

Remember Not, Lord, Our Offences

Henry Purcell

Remember not, Lord, our offenses, nor the offenses of our forefathers; neither take thou vengeance of our sins, but spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood, and be not angry with us forever.

Exhortation and Litany, 1544
