PRELUDE

So Fades the Lovely Blooming Flower (1977)
Once More, My Soul (1977)

George Shearing (1919–2011)

HYMN IN PROCESSION

No. 146, “Jesus, Who This Our Lententide”
The congregation stands and remains masked while singing.

Rockingham

CALL TO WORSHIP

from Psalm 130 & Isaiah 2

Minister: Out of the depths we cry to you, O God.
God, hear our voice!

People: Let your ears be attentive to the voice of our supplications!

Minister: If you should mark iniquities, O God, who of us could stand?

People: But there is forgiveness with you;
and plenteous redemption.

Minister: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in God’s word I hope.

People: My soul waits for the Lord
more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning.

Minister: Come, let us set out in the light of the Lord.

CONFESSION

In unison:

Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

HYMN

Erhalt uns, Herr

The congregation stands and remains masked while singing.

THE PEACE & GREETING

All are invited to join in the singing of Hymn No. 27, stanza 1.

OFFERTORY

Psalm 63:1-9 Deus, Deus meus

Tone II.1

Sung by the choir

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee.

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee, in a barren and dry land where no water is.

Thus have I looked for thee in the sanctuary,

that I might behold thy power and glory.

For thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself: my lips shall praise thee.

As long as I live will I magnify thee in this manner, and lift up my hands in thy Name.

My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness, when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.

Have I not remembered thee in my bed,

and thought upon thee when I was waking?

Because thou hast been my helper;

therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul hangeth upon thee; thy right hand hath upholden me.

DOXOLOGY

The congregation stands and remains masked while singing.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.

Praise God, all people here below.

Praise God above, ye heavenly host.

Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.

Amen.

FIRST LESSON

Proverbs 6:12–19

Pew Bible, page 551 (OT)

ANTHEM

“Come, Ye Disconsolate” from Melodious Accord (1974)

Alice Parker (b. 1925)

Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish,
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts; here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope when all others die, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, in God's name saying,
“Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure.”

Here see the Bread of Life, see waters flowing Forth from the throne of God, pure from above.
Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

St. 1 & 2: Thomas Moore (1779–1852), St. 3: Thomas Hastings (1784–1872)

SECOND LESSON

Ephesians 5:21–33

Pew Bible, page 172 (NT)

ANTHEM

Wondrous Love

Traditional American folk hymn

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul,
to bear the dreadful curse for my soul!

When I was sinking down, sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down beneath God's righteous frown,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul, for my soul,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul.

To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing;
to God and to the Lamb I will sing;
to God and to the Lamb, who is the great I AM,
while millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing,
while millions join the theme, I will sing.

And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;
and when from death I'm free, I'll sing on.
And when from death I'm free, I'll sing his love for me,
and through eternity I'll sing on, I'll sing on,
and through eternity I'll sing.

WELCOME

Today is the Third Sunday in Lent. The preacher is the Reverend Kevin P. Bryant, Affiliated Minister in the Memorial Church, Harvard Chaplain. The worship leaders are the Reverend Matthew Ichihashi Potts, Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals, Faculty of Divinity; Cheyenne Boon MDiv II; and Laurie Sedgwick MDiv III. The first lesson is read by David Foster and the second lesson by Hanna Carney. The music is provided by the Harvard University Choir under the direction of Edward Elwyn Jones, Gund University Organist and Choirmaster and David von Behren, Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster.

MUSIC NOTES

One of the great figures of American music, Boston-born composer Alice Parker is the foremost arranger of American hymns and folk-tunes, many of which were prepared during her long association with the Robert Shaw Chorale. Parker's cantata Melodious Accord is based upon hymn tunes and texts found in the first five editions of the shape-note hymnal Genuine Church Music, which first appeared in 1832, edited by the Mennonite farmer, schoolmaster, and musician, Joseph Funk. "Come, Ye Disconsolate" is based on the famous hymn by Samuel Webbe, setting a text of the Irish poet and translator Thomas Moore.

Wondrous Love is a folk hymn whose text was first published in 1811 during the Second Great Awakening, and whose melody derives from a popular English ballad; the text and melody were first published together in the appendix to the 1840 edition of William Walker's shape-note hymnal, The Southern Harmony.

British jazz pianist George Shearing composed over 300 works, including the jazz standard, Lullaby of Birdland. His organ works came about at the suggestion of Dale Wood, then editor of Sacred Music Press. Blind from birth, Shearing composed the pieces directly onto a recording from which they were transcribed; Wood and Shearing then edited the music and worked out the organ realizations and sounds together at an organ console. The pieces are based on traditional American folk hymns and display both classical and jazz influences.

Patricia Van Ness is Staff Composer at First Church in Cambridge. Her musical style is influenced by the sounds and spirit of Medieval and Renaissance music, and she has received many awards and recognitions for her compositions. Today's postlude is the grand opening movement of her Pastoral Suite (Seven Prayers), written in honor of First Church's longtime music director, Peter Sykes.

Indoor masking will be optional for worship at the Memorial Church beginning Sunday, March 20. We recognize that some community members may have concerns about this update. You are most welcome to continue wearing a mask for your own protection, or to protect individuals close to you.

The University continues to closely monitor the public health conditions in the area regarding COVID-19.

We appreciate your assistance and patience this academic year in helping us to take extra precautionary measures to prevent the spread of infection and to prioritize the wellbeing of our community. Thank you for your cooperation and support of the ministries of the Memorial Church.

As we say each Sunday, no matter who you are, no matter where you are, no matter what you believe, no matter who you love, you are welcome here and we are here for you.

FAITH & LIFE FORUM

The Faith & Life Forum of the Memorial Church explores matters of faith and public life. The Forum takes place in the Buttrick Room in the lower level of the Memorial Church from 9:30–10:30 am on Sundays. Each week we explore themes such as love, justice, suffering, and salvation in relation to the world in which we live. We learn from scholars and practitioners of religion, religious intellectuals, writers, activists, and artists whose work captures conceptions of the sacred and wrestles with the mysterious dimensions of life. In addition to masking, participants will need to register and attest to their health in order to participate in the weekly forum gatherings.

All are welcome to join. Please visit our website to learn more.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School offers Christian education classes for children of age three through sixteen. All classes are held during Sunday Services in the Fall and Spring Terms. To participate in the Church School program, parents or guardians need to register their children, and to attest to the state of their children's health weekly.

Please visit our website to learn more or email Assistant Minister, Calvin Jones (calvon_jones@harvard.edu), with any questions. The Rev. The fellowship will draw on the traditions and customs of Africa and the African Diaspora to foster theological conversations, engaging activities, spoken word and musical moments, opportunities of fellowship, and worship services that present a sense of “home” on the Harvard campus. The LUBF will launch this new ministry at 3 pm, March 27, in the Sanctuary of the Memorial Church. Come and experience powerful music from the African tradition, a dynamic word, fellowship and food. We invite you to share your joys and concerns so that we may communally uplift them to God in the Prayers of the People during Sunday Services. Please send your prayer requests to the Rev. Alanna Sullivan (alanna\_sullivan@harvard.edu).
