Monday

“Es ist nun nichts” from Jesu, meine Freude, BWV 277 Johann Sebastian Bach

Es ist nun nichts Verdammliches an denen, die in Christo Jesu sind, die nicht nach dem Fleische wandeln, sondern nach dem Geist.

Now there is nothing damnable in those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk after the way of the flesh, but after the way of the Spirit.

Romans 8:1–2, The Luther Bible

Tuesday

King of Glory, King of Peace Margaret Vardell Sandresky

King of glory, King of peace, I will love thee;
And that love may never cease, I will move thee.
Thou hast granted my request, thou hast heard me;
thou didst note my working breast, thou hast spared me.

Wherefore with my utmost art, I will sing thee;
and the cream of all my heart, I will bring thee.
Though my sins against me cried, thou didst clear me;
and alone, when they replied, thou didst hear me.

Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee,
In my heart, though not in heaven I can raise thee.
Small it is in this poor sort to enroll thee;
e'en eternity's too short to extol thee.

George Herbert (1593–1633)

Wednesday

Jesu, the Very Thought of Thee Edward Bairstow

Jesu, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

Edward Caswall (1814–1878)

Thursday

Prayer for Generosity Gwyneth Walker

Lord, teach me to be generous, with my heart and soul. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, with my heart and soul; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will. The goal of our life is to live with God forever—God who loves us, God who gave us life. We must hold ourselves in balance, in calmness, listening, nurturing, knowing God's deepening love within us. Lord, teach me to be generous, with my heart and soul and mind and thoughts and words and deeds and prayers and actions.

Ignatius of Loyola (1491–1556), alt.

Friday

Peace I Leave with You Amy Beach

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you:
Not as the world giveth, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled.

John 14:27 (KJV)
