Music Notes for Sunday, December 18, 2022

Marianne Kim is a composer, organist, and pianist based in the Chicago area. As both performer and composer, her work encompasses a variety of musical styles including classical, jazz, Broadway musical, R&B, gospel, traditional & contemporary church music, and more.

Composer in Residence Carson Cooman's Variations on a Basque Noël is based on the tune "Beude bazter." The piece was written for organist James Kibbie, professor at the University of Michigan.

French baroque composer Louis-Claude Daquin is best remembered for his "noëls," organ settings (in variation form) of what were at that time familiar French carol melodies.
