Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE BAPTISM

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Gracious God, by our Baptism, you welcome us into the household of faith and open the way to new life in this world and the next. Receive this person who is baptized today, and strengthen us all to be your people in the world and a blessing to the Earth.

The congregation seated

Minister: I now invite the candidate for Holy Baptism to come forward.

Minister: David Hojab, do you desire to be baptized?

Candidate: I do.

Minister: Trusting in the gracious mercy of God, will you turn from the ways of sin and trust in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, being his faithful disciple, obeying his word and showing his love?

Candidate: I will with God's help.

Minister: Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior?

Candidate: I do.

Minister: Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love, to your life's end?

Candidate: I will.

To the congregation:

Minister: Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support this person in his life in Christ?

People: We will.

Minister: Let us pray for this person who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

Litanist: Open his heart, O God, to your grace and truth.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Litanist: Fill him with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Litanist: Teach him to love others in the power of the Spirit.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Litanist: Send him into the world in witness to your love.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

BLESSING OF THE WATER

Minister: Bless by your Holy Spirit, gracious God, this water. By the same Holy Spirit save them who confess the name of Jesus Christ, that sin may have no power over them. Create new life in all who are baptized that they may rise in Christ. Glory to you, eternal God, the one who was, and is, and shall always be, world without end.

People: Amen.

THE BAPTISM

Minister: I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. You are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever.

PRAYER FOR THE BAPTIZED

Psalm 80:1-3, 17-19

Qui regis Israel

Tone IV

Sung by the choir

Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock;
show thyself also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim.

Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up thy strength, and come and help us.

Turn us again, O God;
show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, and upon the son of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

And so will not we go back from thee:
O let us live, and we shall call upon thy name.

Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts;
show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

DOXOLOGY

Sung by the congregation, standing

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Claudio Monteverdi represents the pinnacle of Italian Renaissance composition, and guided the transformation to the early Baroque style: the Harvard University Choir is celebrating Monteverdi's compositions throughout the academic year, in honor of the 450th anniversary of the composer's birth. He revolutionized the music of the theater and the church with a dramatic use of instruments and voices, combined with a daring harmonic palette. From 1613 until his death in 1643, Monteverdi held the esteemed post of choirmaster of St. Mark's Basilica, Venice: unfortunately, much of the sacred music he wrote for Venice—including several important works mentioned in contemporary letters and documents—is now lost. Most of what does survive was published in the massive 1641 collection Selva morale e spirituale (A Moral and Spiritual Forest). Alongside some of his most famous and popular works, such as Beatus vir, stands a Mass for Four Voices, deliberately written in the restrained a cappella style characteristic of the masses of Palestrina. The choir also presents selections from the Marian hymn Ave maris stella found in Monteverdi's 1610 Vespers; two eight-part verses frame a pair of smaller-scale ones, interspersed with instrumental ritornelli.

To welcome in the new liturgical year, today's organ music comprises two settings of the Advent hymn, "Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland" ("Savior of the Nations, Come") from Bach's collection of large-scale chorale preludes known as the Great Eighteen. The prelude is plaintive in mood with florid elaborations of the melody in the treble; while the postlude is an energetic toccata which presents the chorale melody in the pedals.
