MUSIC NOTES

Joseph Haydn, the “father of the symphony,” is primarily remembered for his instrumental music, and the two magnificent late oratorios, The Creation and The Seasons. His twelve complete and authenticated Mass settings, however, were very popular during his lifetime; Haydn's formative musical experiences were as a chorister in St. Stephen's Cathedral, Vienna, and his first and last compositions were Mass settings. The Missa Sancti Nicolai dates from 1772, and was probably written for the Feast of St. Nicholas on December 6, which was also the nameday of Prince Nicolaus Esterhazy, Haydn's employer. This morning we hear the Kyrie and Agnus Dei; the lilting time signature of the opening movement and the “Dona nobis pacem” evokes the pastoral imagery long associated with shepherds and rustics.

The plainsong Advent melody “Veni Emmanuel” forms the basis of this morning's organ music, in interpretations by two English composers. Kenneth Leighton held university appointments at Leeds and Oxford before becoming Reid Professor of Music at Edinburgh in 1970; his Fantasy on “Veni Emmanuel” highlights the composer's distinctive harmonic vocabulary. Andrew Carter studied music at Leeds University before moving to York, where he sang in the famous Minster choir. His Toccata on “Veni Emmanuel” is in the manner of the grand French Toccata, inspired by Jean Guillou's playing of the organ of Saint Eustache, Paris.
