

HARVARD

GRADUATE SCHOOL
OF EDUCATION

Wednesday, 11/9
5:30–7 p.m.
Askwith Hall
13 Appian Way
Cambridge, MA 02138

EDUCATION AND TRANSFORMATIVE JUSTICE

A Community Conversation about Connections, Questions and Action

MODERATOR

Kaia Stern

Lecturer on Education, HGSE;
Cofounder, Prison Studies Project

PANELISTS

Ernesto “Eroc” Arroyo-Montano

Educator at United For a Fair Economy

Melissa W. Bartholomew

Racial Justice and Healing Practitioner

Mariam Durrani

Postdoctoral Fellow in Education, HGSE

David J. Harris

Director of The Charles Hamilton Houston
Institute for Race and Justice at Harvard Law School

Autumn White Eyes

Ed.M. Candidate, HGSE

How do we understand justice?

*What are the connections between under-resourced schools, trauma,
and mass incarceration?*

From cradle to prison cell, how do we give educators the tools needed to work for justice that transforms individuals, relationships and communities?

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Tracie Jones

Assistant Director for Diversity and Inclusion Programs, HGSE

Co-sponsored by:

Charles Hamilton Houston Institute for Race & Justice at Harvard Law School • Harvard Memorial Church •
Philips Brooks House Association • Prison Studies Project • Harvard Divinity School

TRANSFORMATIVE JUSTICE
series